2006 STAFF

Ralph Wilson, Jr. President

47th Year with the Bills

Marv Levy General Manager

22nd NFL Season
13th with the Bills

▼ Marv Levy returned to the Bills organization this past January as General Manager, a position he has never held in his 50+ years in football, but one in which he is very familiar. During his Pro Football Hall of Fame coaching tenure in Buffalo, Levy worked very closely with general managers Bill Polian and John Butler and learned many of the nuances of the position.

Levy's return to the Bills family came about when Ralph Wilson called his good friend seeking advice in his search for a new general manager. After a brief discussion of possible candidates, the Bills owner asked the magical question, "What about you, Marv, coming back as general manager?" At that point, Mr. Wilson had found his new general manager and much of the credibility of the Buffalo Bills rich tradition had returned home.

Levy's storied Bills coaching career began on November 3, 1986 when he took over for Hank Bullough. During the next 12 seasons Levy directed the Bills to four consecutive Super Bowl appearances, four AFC titles and six AFC East crowns. The Bills were the winningest AFC team in the 1990's and Levy remains ranked as the 13th all-time winningest coach in NFL history with 143 career victories (not including 11 playoff wins).

On his way to becoming the winningest coach in Bills history, Levy was named Coach of the Year in 1988 and 1995 by UPI and AFC Coach of the Year in 1993. His 123 victories makes him the only Bills coach to eclipse the 100-win mark.

Levy was a standout running back and a sprinter on the track team at Coe College, where he was a Phi Beta Kappa graduate in 1950. He earned a master's degree in English History from Harvard University in 1951. As a native of Chicago, the die-hard Cubs fan graduated from Chicago's South Shore High School and upon graduation in 1943 enlisted in the Army Air Corps and served from 1943 until early 1946. Marv and his wife Mary Frances (Fran) have one daughter, Kimberly, who works in Chicago.

Russ Brandon

Executive Vice President of Business Operations

10th Year with the Bills

▼ Russ Brandon was appointed Executive Vice President of Business Operations in late January of 2006. He joins General Manager, Marv Levy in overseeing the front office operations at One Bills Drive and will report directly to Bills President Ralph Wilson, Jr.

At the time of Brandon's appointment Mr. Wilson noted, "During his tenure here with the organization Russ has not only brought great vision to the marketing of the organization he has also developed and fostered the trust of the business community. His hard work and relationship skills have helped us develop a strong base of strategic business and community partners. In his new role, Russ will continue to develop and foster programs that help us connect with our fans and partners."

Brandon previously served as the team's Vice President of Business Development and Marketing from January of 1999 through January 2006. He and his staff have been credited with the development of the team as a regional franchise and forming strategic alliances with key business partners. Additionally, he and his staff developed numerous brand building, community, stadium and ticketing initiatives while overseeing major growth within many business-to-business platforms.

Brandon is a member of the NFL Marketing Committee and the NFL Best Practices Committee, assisting in the development of new league business strategies. Brandon's success in the sports business field has been recognized with numerous awards and in 2001 he was the recipient of Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal's Forty under 40 award.

In 1999, Brandon and his staff finalized the foundation of the regionalization plan by relocating Buffalo Bills Training Camp to St. John Fisher College in Pittsford, New York. The new layout and location provided the perfect blend of fan interaction and training accommodations. While at St. John Fisher College, the Bills have continually ranked among the NFL's best in training camp attendance.

Brandon joined the Bills in November of 1997 as Executive Director of Business Development and Marketing after earning a World Series ring as a member of the Florida Marlins front office. He began his sports business career as a member of the Rochester Red Wings (Triple A affiliate of the Baltimore Orioles) serving in many capacities, including assistant general manager.

The native of East Syracuse, New York, is also involved in regional and league initiatives. He is a member of the Board of Trustees at St. John Fisher College and serves on the board at the Buffalo Niagara Partnership.

Brandon was a four-year letterman in baseball and football at St. John Fisher College and graduated with a degree in communications. He was inducted into his alma mater's Sports Hall of Fame in 2004. He and his wife, Amy, have three children, sons RJ and Jack and daughter, Grace. They reside in Williamsville, New York.

Jim Overdorf

Vice President of Football Administration

21st Year with the Bills

▼ With the changes following the 2005 season Jim Overdorf was promoted to the position of Vice President of Football Administration and took on more responsibility in the administrative aspects of the football side of the organization. Whereas he had worked in past years with the general manager in negotiating player contracts, Overdorf is now the Bills point person in this important area.

In addition to contract negotiations, one of Overdorf's key responsibilities lies in the area of the NFL's salary cap. An ever-changing and complicated issue, a thorough understanding of the salary cap is an important element in operating in today's world of professional football and the Bills have an extremely qualified salary cap administrator in Overdorf.

Overdorf continues to handle various administrative business matters and also works in conjunction with the corporate office in Detroit. Those duties include, but are not limited to, coordinating team travel, workers compensation and various other general office and legal operations.

Overdorf was promoted Vice President/Business Administration in March of 2000 after having served as Director of Business Operations for eight years. He was involved in all player contract negotiations and salary cap dealings in his role of assisting the general manager.

He served as the business manager prior to 1993 and joined the club as a training camp intern in 1986. During that time, he worked in public relations, scouting and the ticket office while gaining admission to the New York State Bar (1988). He is a member of the NYSBA. Overdorf earned a B.A. degree in political science from Eckerd College and a J.D. from Drake Law School and was a member of the school's rugby team. He and his wife Michele have one daughter, Katie.

Dick Jauron Head Coach

22nd Year in the NFL
2nd Year with the Bills (1st as Head Coach)

▼ Dick Jauron's coaching career traveled full-circle when he was named the Buffalo Bills' 14th head coach on January 23, 2006. Jauron began his coaching career as a Bills defensive assistant coach in 1985 and 21 years later he returns to Western New York to embark on a new challenge in his first season as the head coach of the Bills.

Bills general manager Marv Levy noted Jauron's knowledge of the game as well as his teaching skills as the top reasons why Jauron will lead the Bills in a winning direction as the head coach.

"We selected Dick because we felt that he was the best head coach and the man who was going to direct our team and put it all together in a winning way," Levy said. "I liked very much Dick's beliefs on the structure of our team and his role as the head coach. He is a great teacher and gets along with everyone in the organization. He is a straight shooter, he is honest and has the respect of his players."

Jauron enters his tenure as Buffalo's head coach with over two decades of NFL coaching experience and most recently finished the 2005 season as the interim head coach of the Detroit Lions after spending close to all of 2004 and the majority of 2005 as the Lions defensive coordinator.

Before joining the Lions prior to the 2004 season, Jauron had spent the previous five seasons as the head coach for the Chicago Bears, where he was the 2001 Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year. That season, he led the Bears to a 13-3 record and their first NFC Central division championship since 1990. Jauron joined George Halas and Mike Ditka as the only coaches in franchise history to reach 13 wins in a single season and the sixth Bears coach to string a six-game winning streak together during the season.

The 2001 Bears were known for their clutch play as they accumulated five second-half come-from-behind victories and an 8-0 record in games decided by seven points or less. The Bears defense ranked first in the NFL in points allowed and second in rushing yards allowed.

The Bears' run in 2001 was established by a strong finish to end the 2000 season. Playing the league's strongest schedule, Jauron's team finished 5-11; however, Chicago capped off the 2000 campaign with a 4-4 record in the final eight games. Four of those victories down the stretch came against playoff-bound or playoff-contending teams (Indianapolis, Tampa Bay and Detroit). Jauron also guided the Bears to a road victory at Green Bay for the second consecutive year, becoming the first coach in Bears history to record consecutive wins in his first two games at Green Bay (1999 and 2000).

During Jauron's five seasons in the Windy City, the Bears were represented in the Pro Bowl each year by a combination of eight different players, which included KR Jerry Azumah, WR Marty Booker, KR Glyn Milburn, C Olin Kreutz (three times), LB Brian Urlacher (four times), DT Ted Washington, S Larry Whigham and T James Williams.

As head coach, Jauron compiled a career coaching record of 36-49 (.423).

Prior to his stint in Chicago, Jauron served as the defensive coordinator for the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars from 1995-98, helping lead the team to three playoff appearances in four years, including the AFC Championship game in 1996 and the AFC Central division title in 1998.

From 1986-94, Jauron coached the defensive backs for the Green Bay Packers under three different head coaches (Forrest Gregg, Lindy Infante and Mike Holmgren). While in Green Bay, he worked on a coaching staff with former Lions Head Coach Steve Mariucci and current New York Giants Head Coach Tom Coughlin. Jauron was instrumental in the development of Packers All-Pro S LeRoy Butler, who went to four Pro Bowls in his career. Jauron's coaching career started in 1985 with the Buffalo Bills, also as a defensive backs coach.

Jauron was drafted in the fourth round of the 1973 draft by the Detroit Lions and also by the St.

Louis Cardinals in the June Major League Baseball draft in 1973. He spent his first five NFL seasons with the club. He started at free safety as a rookie and was a Pro Bowl selection in 1974 after leading the NFC in punt return average (16.8). Jauron has the fifth longest interception return, a 95-yard touchdown, in Lions franchise history against Chicago on November 18, 1973. He played the final three seasons of his career with the Cincinnati Bengals, and finished with a career tally of 26 interceptions and two touchdowns. After retiring from the NFL, Jauron worked two years for Nautilus Sports Medical Industries before launching his coaching career.

A graduate of Yale University with a bachelor's degree in history, Jauron holds several school rushing records, including consecutive 100-yard rushing games (16). He spent much of his childhood in Rensselaer, Ind., where his father was the head coach at St. Joseph's College. A three-sport standout at Swampscott (Mass.) High School, Jauron was named one of the top 10 prep athletes of the 20th Century in the state of Massachusetts by the Boston Globe.

Jauron and his wife, Gail, have two daughters, Kacy and Amy.

He is just the fifth back in Bills history to reach 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons...With the help of Stutesville, McGahee became the quickest back in team history to reach 2,000 yards as he accomplished the feat in just 26 games...under Stutesville, fullback Daimon Shelton has developed into one of the most punishing fullbacks in the NFL clearing holes for McGahee and the rushing attack...in his first season with the Bills, he coached his second straight 1,000-yard rusher as Willis McGahee produced 1,128 yards. McGahee also tied a Bills' rookie record with 13 touchdowns as a first year back...guided McGahee to an explosive start to his career as he became only the third NFL back since 1970 to rush for 100 yards in his first three starts. Helped fullback Daimon Shelton become a punishing force after a one-year hiatus from football. Shelton caught a career-high 17 passes for 114 yards in 2004...Spent three seasons coaching running backs for the New York Giants (2001-03)...under Stutesville, Tiki Barber ran for 1,216 and led the team in receptions with 69 for 461 yards in 2003...Giants running backs rushed for 1,817 yards and caught 99 passes for another 776 yards in 2002 and in 2001, the Giants backs rushed for 1,659 yards and caught 123 passes for an additional 922 yards...prior to his time with the Giants, Stutesville was the offensive quality control coach for the Chicago Bears (1997-00)... Stutesville got his start in the collegiate ranks where he coached the defensive backs at Kent (1995-96) and at Wingate University in North Carolina (1994)...also served on the coaching staffs at North Carolina (1992-93) and Arizona (1991).

▼ PERSONAL: A native of Madison, Wis., Stutesville earned a degree in physical education with a minor in coaching at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater, where he played defensive back. He received a master's degree in exercise physiology from Arizona. He worked with the Bears coaching staff during training camp in 1996 as part of the NFL minority fellowship program...lives in Hamburg, NY with his wife, Staci and daughter Sydni.

BUFFALO BILLS RADIO NETWORK

A familiar face returns to the Bills in 2006. Former Bills defensive back Mark Kelso joins the Buffalo Bills Radio Network as the color analyst for the 2006 season.

Kelso replaces former analyst Alex Van Pelt, who joined the Bills coaching staff as the offensive quality control coach in the offseason. Kelso enjoyed an eight-year NFL career with Buffalo (1986-1993) and served as the starting free safety for the final seven seasons of his career.

Citadel Communications will be broadcasting Buffalo Bills football for the ninth straight season in 2006. WGRF-FM (96.9, -97 Rock) and WEDG-FM (103.3 The Edge) serve as the flagship stations for the Bills in 2006 with John Murphy handling the play-by-play duties and the color commentary from Kelso.

Known for his intelligence and savvy on the field, Kelso will look to bring those same intangibles to the Bills broadcast team.

"I have a passion for Buffalo," said Kelso who has lived in East Aurora since 1990. "The Bills and other professional teams in Buffalo have a major influence on the perception and morale of the city. I'm excited to become part of that tradition."

Murphy, the sports director at WKBW-TV in Buffalo, is entering his 19th season as part of the broadcast team and third as the play-by-play voice of the Bills. WIVB Sports reporter Paul Peck returns to team as the sideline reporter, a role he held from 2002-2004. Peck first began working on Bills' radio broadcast in 1998 as a pre and post game host. Bills Radio Network pre game co-host Rich Gaenzler will join the broadcast team to provide in-game updates as well as news from around the NFL during the game broadcast. Gaenzler has been a member of the Buffalo Bills Radio Network since 1999. He hosted the Bills' post game show from 1999-2003 and has been a co-host for the Bills pre game show for the past two seasons.

BUFFALOBILLS.COM

The Buffalo Bills launched its newly designed version of buffalobills.com, the official website of the Buffalo Bills shortly after the NFL Draft in April. Introducing its first new design since September 2004, Buffalo-bills.com offers visitors expanded coverage, more content and interactive activity on the home of the most extensive Buffalo Bills information on the internet. The new design provides easier navigation throughout the site and a simpler layout allowing viewers to find information quickly and effectively.

Current Bills Digest Editor Chris Brown joins the site as its new lead journalist. Brown writes daily features and reports on the daily news at One Bills Drive in his Inside the Bills interactive daily notebook. Brown also files daily video reports following NFL Draft events, mini-camps, practices, press conferences and other major events at team headquarters. For the past 10 years, Brown has covered the Bills for a number of Buffalo-area media outlets and (most recently) serves as the pregame co-host, analyst and halftime host for the Bills Radio Network.

Visitors have the opportunity to participate interactively in Q&A sessions with team personnel, contests for special Bills-related prizes, a variety of fan polls and selection of player of the week on the Bills Backers section of the new buffalobills.com. Bills Backers is the largest registered online fan base in professional sports. With more than 60,000 fans, the Bills online community receives exclusive access to fan Q&A sessions, participation in contests for road trips and Bills merchandise and other exclusive opportunities. All fans have the opportunity to discuss all topics pertaining to the Bills on the buffalobills.com message boards.

An increased multimedia section this year is filled with video from the Bills Television Network, behind the scenes at Bills practices, and the all-new Bills Online TV, called Bills Focus. Buffalobills.com also offers live coverage of all Bills press conferences, including Dick Jauron's weekly preview of the upcoming game.

Along with the expanded coverage and more content, Buffalobills.com remains the internet's one-stop shop for information, merchandise and tickets.

BUFFALO BILLS JUNIOR PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

For the past four years the Buffalo Bills have offered the Junior Player Development (J.P.D.) program at Buffalo's Riverside High School. J.P.D. is a four-week, 12-session football program that is free for up to 200 participants between the ages 12-15 yrs. old. This introductory youth tackle football program teaches all basic fundamentals, such as tackling and blocking at every practice.

This structured and controlled environment enables all players to learn at their comfort level. All practices are broken into instructional segments lasting no more than 15 minutes. The particular assigned position of the day is taught in an upbeat tempo that holds a player's interest throughout the entire practice.

The program integrates on-field skills development with life skills and character development. As they plan for future high school interscholastic activities, participants receive instruction from selected youth, high school and college football coaches, as well as counseling that focuses around a weekly life skill. Each life skill theme is addressed through the context of football with instructors making connections between life skills as they are applied on the field, in school, at home and in the community. For more information about the Buffalo Bills JPD program visit www.buffalobills.com or call 716-648-1800.

In the Community...

In 2005, Kevin Everett was a member of the Buffalo Bills Rookie Club. The Rookie Club helps the franchise's newest players get involved in the Western New York community. Each month, Kevin and all the first year players did one community appearance as a group. During the 2005 season the Rookie Club hosted a party for the young patients at Women & Children's Hospital, ran a NFL FLAG football clinic for 150 children, served Thanksgiving Dinner to 300 guests at the Northwest Buffalo Community Center and hosted the Annual Bills Holiday Party for Kids at Ralph Wilson Stadium. Kevin Everett also attended the NFL / United Way Hometown Huddle Bowling Party.

In the Community...

London Fletcher-Baker was named the Buffalo Bills 2005 Walter Payton Man of the Year as voted on by selected members of the western New York community.

This prestigious award began in 1970 and honors players who demonstrate outstanding balance in their lives between civic and professional responsibilities. In 1999, the NFL renamed the award after the late Walter Payton as a tribute to his greatness both on and off the field.

On the field or off of it, Fletcher-Baker is a difference maker in Buffalo. Fletcher-Baker has served as the spokesman for Verizon Wireless HopeLine collection, an annual stadium cell phone collection that takes place in October in recognition of domestic violence awareness month. He makes annual appearances to promote the collection and increase the awareness of supporting victims of domestic violence.

For the past two years, Fletcher-Baker partnered with Buffalo's Community Action Information Center to provide 59 turkeys to families in need at Thanksgiving. Fletcher-Baker delivers the turkeys and spends time with families in the neighborhood.

As a Cleveland, OH native, Fletcher-Baker also reaches out to support residents in his hometown. For the past four years, he has hosted holiday turkey-give-a-ways for Thanksgiving and a holiday dinner for underprivileged children and their families. He provides children with a new bike and helmet as a holiday gift.

Through the London's Bridge Foundation he coordinates many of these programs and in 2005 he established a scholarship program for high school seniors from the Cleveland City Public Schools. This season he awarded one $1,500 scholarship and two $500 scholarships for students to help pay for ancillary costs such as books, school supplies etc. at college.

This fall Fletcher-Baker will select 50 students from the Cleveland City Public Schools (five students from 10 different schools) and mentor them through the college application process. Students will be taken on college tours in Ohio, Pennsylvania and historically black colleges and universities. Students will be provided with SAT and ACT college preparation courses as well as college essay and financial aid application support. The program will also help the students register to vote. The purpose of the London's Bridge Foundation is to bond and build young lives through education, communication and encouraging youth to aspire to the highest potential in life.

Fletcher-Baker participates in the NFL matching high school football grant program. Annually, he contributes to the athletic department of his alma mater John Carroll University.

▼ PRO: Taken with the Bills final selection of the 2005 Draft (236th overall)...Buffalo's first pick from Louisville since RB Cardwell Gardner was selected in 1990.

▼ 2005: Inactive for the first 15 games of the season before being activated prior to the final week... dressed but did not play at NYJ (1/1/06).

▼ COLLEGE: Gates sacrificed personal success for that of the team during his career at Louisville. Has the ability to start for most college teams, but performed capably for the Cardinals while sharing time with Henry Miller, Eric Shelton and Michael Bush in his four seasons at the school. He is the cousin of former Clemson Tigers and Cleveland Browns line-backer Rahim Abdullah. The Terry Parker High product gained 1,000 yards in each of his last three prep seasons, including 1,700 yards and 17 touchdowns as a senior. He helped Parker to an appearance in the Florida state playoffs as a senior and was named to the Florida Times-Union Super 24 and All-First Coast teams. He was also selected 2000 Jacksonville Quarterback Club Player of the Year. Prior to his senior campaign, Gates rushed for 1,350 yards with 14 touchdowns as a junior and 1,200 yards during his sophomore campaign. He was twice chosen to the All-Northeast Florida second team and was named one of the top seniors in the state of Florida by FoxSports.com. The four-year letterman and three-year starter on the football team also earned four letters in track. Gates redshirted in 2000 and saw limited action with the Cardinals in 2001 due to tonsillitis and a shoulder injury. He started the first two games of the 2002 campaign, but was not used much the rest of the year, finishing with 209 yards and a score on 72 attempts (2.9 avg.). Despite working in a shuttle system with Shelton and Bush, he led the squad with 141 carries for 817 yards (5.8 avg.) and 11 touchdowns, adding another 368 yards on 25 catches in 2003. As a senior, he again shared the rushing load, but was sidelined twice by injuries. He sat out the North Carolina game with a hamstring pull and missed the final two regular-season contests against Cincinnati and Tulane after suffering a knee sprain against Houston. Gates still finished third on the squad with 76 carries for 373 yards (4.9 avg.) and seven touchdowns. He added 71 yards and two scores on 10 receptions, and had 92 yards on six kickoff returns (15.3 avg.) while gaining 536 all-purpose yards in nine contests. Gates finished his career with 310 carries for 1,475 yards (4.8 avg.) and 20 touchdowns. Gates also caught 40 passes for 469 yards (11.7 avg.) and a pair of scores, while tacking on 92 yards on six kickoff returns. In 36 games, he started eight times, amassing 2,036 all-purpose yards.

▼ PERSONAL: Communications major at Louisville... Attended Terry Parker (Jacksonville, Fla.) High School, playing football for coach David Boland ... Gained 1,000 yards in each of his last three prep seasons, including 1,700 yards and 17 touchdowns as a senior ... Helped Parker High to an appearance in the Florida state playoffs as a senior and was named to the Florida Times-Union Super 24 and All-First Coast teams ... Also selected 2000 Jacksonville Quarterback Club Player of the Year.

BUFFALO BILLS YOUTH STADIUM ADDS NEW FEATURES

In 2004, the Buffalo Bills became pioneers in NFL Youth Football circles by becoming the first NFL franchise to open a facility dedicated for youth football on the same grounds as the team headquarters.

Last season, the Buffalo Bills Youth Football Stadium began to expand. The stadium located next to Ralph Wilson Stadium added new bleachers to accommodate 500 fans and a press box that features a sound system, control panel for the scoreboard and a camera deck.

The Bills received a matching grant from the NFL Youth Football Fund to assist in paying for the renovations.

The Bills became the first NFL franchise to open a facility dedicated for youth football on the same grounds as the team headquarters, pioneering an initiative first presented by NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue at the NFL Owners Meeting in March 2004.

The manicured, regulation-size grass football field is located behind Ralph Wilson Stadium in a space formally occupied by the Bills' outdoor practice field. A full-size scoreboard is featured above the South end zone.

The field will be used by teams in the Western New York Youth Tackle Football Federation, which consists of approximately 300 youth football teams from as far north as Niagara Falls, NY stretching west through Erie County into Pennsylvania.

Throughout the year, the Bills will use the facility for youth football-related events such as NFL High School and Junior Player Development programs, NFL FLAG games and Pepsi Punt, Pass and Kick competitions.

BUFFALO BILLS HIGH SCHOOL PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Buffalo Bills High School Player Development provides incoming, fall season, sophomores, juniors and seniors a program focusing on academic counseling as well as specific football skill training by position. Each participant gains a full awareness of what it takes to become a successful high school and collegiate student-athlete, along with the resources and information to meet NCAA

Clearinghouse requirements.

The program is comprised of an online academic and life skill curriculum and 10 hours of on-field, fundamental skill development by position. All program participants spend five hours of on-field programming at an offensive position and the remaining five hours at a defensive position of their coach's choice. Guest speakers address participants on life skills and football issues for 20 minutes prior to each practice.

At the conclusion of the program, each participant receives a personalized portfolio. This portfolio measures each player's skill development by position and provides a complete breakdown of that player's skill techniques. It also notes issues that need to be addressed in order to improve and advance to the next skill level.

Participants have the opportunity to meet with counselors to review and evaluate their academic standings and to receive an academic recommendation action plan. This plan positions them to be eligible and fully prepared to meet NCAA Clearinghouse requirements and student-athlete demands while in college.

Bills HSPD provides high school players from inner-city public schools with academic support through counseling in areas such as class standings, core course selection, maintaining a GPA, preparing for standardized tests and preparing for life after school. For more information about the Bills High School Player Development program visit www.buffalobills.com or call 716-648-1800.

▼ 2004: Showcased his explosive talent in his first full year in the NFL...finished the year with 1,128 rushing yards, second most in Bills history for a first-year running back; also eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark seven times in 11 starts, setting a new record for first-year Bills (old record: three by Joe Cribbs and Greg Bell)... his five multi-TD games in '04 are the second most by a Bill in a single season, behind only O.J. Simpson's six in 1975...McGahee closed out the season with 13 straight games with a rush of over 10 yards, and knocked off runs of 20-plus yards in five of the team's last seven games...his 13 rushing touchdowns on

Quickclicks

- After posting a game-high 81 yards at Miami (12/4/05), McGahee surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark for the second straight season. McGahee is the fifth Bills rusher to post back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons in club history. The others: Thurman Thomas (8, 1989-96), O.J. Simpson (5, 1972-76), Joe Cribbs (2, 1980-81) and Travis Henry (2, 2002-03).
- McGahee became the quickest player in Bills history to reach the 2,000-yard rushing mark as he did so in 26 career games
- Set a career high with 1,247 yards rushing in 2005 and 143 yards rushing vs. the New York Jets on 10/16/05.
- Was named a Pro Bowl Alternate at running back in 2005

Quickclicks

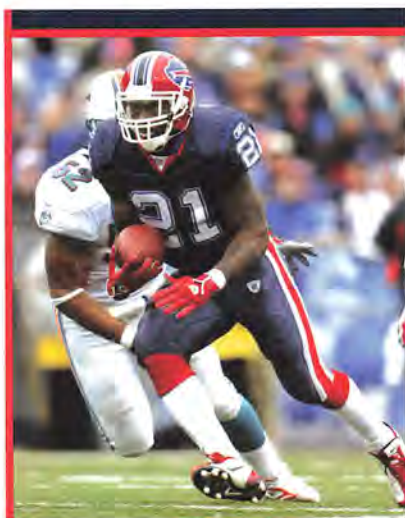

- After being inserted in the starting lineup vs. Miami (10/17/04), McGahee rushed for 100+ yards in seven of 11 starts in 2004 which ranks in a fifth place tie for most 100-yard rushing performances in a season by a Bill
- Became only the third player since 1970 to rush for 100+ yards in his first three NFL starts (Stump Mitchell (82-85) StL/Pho-first four, and Chris Brown (2004) Ten. were the others)
- Finished 2004 with 13 rushing touchdowns, which tied for second on the Bills all-time list for rushing TDs in a season.
- McGahee's 1,128 yards in 2004 were the second most by a Bills first-year running back (Joe Cribbs, 1,185 in 1980)
- With five multi-touchdown games in 2004, McGahee ranks second in Bills history to O.J. Simpson, who posted six in 1975.

the year tied him for the second highest total in team history, three behind O.J. Simpson's 16 touchdowns in 1975...in his first career NFL game, vs. Jax. (9/12/04), McGahee rushed for 31 yards on nine carries and caught one pass for 12 yards in a reserve role...carried the ball two times for minus three yards at Oak. (9/19)...played but did not touch the ball vs. NE (10/3)...led the team in rushing with 42 yards on eight carries (5.3 avg.) at NYJ (10/10), and also caught one pass for two yards; had a game-long 21-yard run in the fourth quarter that set up the team's first touchdown of the game...started in his first career NFL game vs. Mia. (10/17) and rushed for 111 yards on 26 carries...his 111 rushing yards in only his fifth NFL game ranks him as the third quickest Bill in history to eclipse the century mark in the beginning of his career, and the highest yardage total for any Bills running back in their first career start; his 31-yard rush in the fourth quarter was his first career run of over 30 yards...also caught three passes for 31 yards vs. Mia., including a nine-yard fourth down reception in the second quarter...

his first five career receptions occurred on either third or fourth down with three of the five resulting in first downs...did not start at Bal. (10/24) but received the bulk of the playing time and carried the ball 16 times for 58 yards; also caught one pass for one yard...started his second career game vs. AZ (10/31) and rushed for 102 yards on 30 carries with two touchdowns; his two rushing touchdowns were the first scores of his career; had two rushes of over 20 yards (23 & 24) on the team's first drive, marking the fourth straight game McGahee registered runs of 15-plus yards...carried the ball 37 times for 132 yards and one touchdown vs. NYJ (11/7); his 37 carries were the most by a Bill since Thurman Thomas registered 37 carries on 11/8/92, and the second highest in team history (39 by O.J. Simpson, 10/29/73)...since 1970, only two other players rushed for over 100-plus yards in their first three starts [Stump Mitchell (first four) and Chris Brown]...totaled team highs in carries and yards with 14 rushes for 37 yards at NE (11/14)...rushed for 100-plus yards for the fourth time vs. St.L. (11/21) on a 20-carry, 100-yard performance (both game highs); posted a run of 41 yards in the third quarter, his first career run of over 40 yards...wrote himself, once again, in the Bills record books, becoming only the third Bill to ever rush for four-plus touchdowns in one game with four TDs on 28 carries for a game-high 116 yards at Sea. (11/28); he was the first Bill to rush for four-plus touchdowns in a game since Roland Hooks vs. Cin. 9/9/79...his TD runs came

GAMEDAY COLLECTION
Original Art by Terrence McGee

In June 2006, McGee launched his own line of tee shirts and posters known as the Gameday Collection. Gameday Collection posters and tee shirts feature original artwork designed by the pro bowl cornerback/kick returner. The line of posters and t-shirts are offered exclusively at The Bills Store at Ralph Wilson Stadium in Orchard Park and at the Eastview Mall in Rochester.

The first edition of posters and t-shirts feature a piece called "Inside". "Inside" is a reprint of an original McGee portrait drawn with charcoal.

"I started drawing again last season to relieve the stress of going through an NFL season," said McGee, who first began producing these charcoal pieces in high school back in Athens, TX. "This is a great opportunity to express my creativity in another way."

Gameday Collection posters are 24x36 and retail for $6. Gameday Collection tee shirts are white and feature a black and white portrait of McGee wearing a Bills helmet and retail for $15. McGee plans to offer a line of Gameday Collection hats beginning in August.

In the Community...

The crux of Brian Moorman's community involvement in 2005 has been his work with Roswell Park Cancer Institute in Buffalo. During the season, each Tuesday, Moorman and his wife Amber make a weekly visit to the patients of Roswell Park. After three years of his consistent appearances Tuesdays at Roswell are now known as 'Tuesdays with Moorman' by its patients and staff.

Moorman's work in the community revolves around his spending time with pediatric cancer victims during his five year career in Buffalo. Brian began working with the kids at Carly's Club Club - the official pediatric fundraising entity for Roswell Park Cancer Institute - in his first few months with the team. In 2003, he established the Brian Moorman PUNT Foundation to support pediatric cancer research, treatment and social programs. As the foundation has grown, Moorman has hosted more events to benefit the foundation. One event that is hugely popular is the Carly's Club Halloween Party, which Moorman helped bring to the Bills' fieldhouse and which has tripled in size the past two years. In 2005, he hosted the second annual Turf Jam Karaoke Fundraiser which includes several of his teammates and other local celebrities all singing for a good cause. The Turf Jam event also includes an auction of autographed sports memorabilia. Moorman started his 'Kick For a Cure Program' in which Dunlop made a donation to his foundation for every punt he placed inside the 20-yard line in 2005. Moorman dropped a career-high 22 punts inside the 20.

He remains a spokesperson and supporter for many events at Roswell Park Cancer Institute including Keith's Classic and Carly's Club golf tournament, All Star Night, Lighting of the Tree of Hope and their annual holiday parties and events for the families. Even in his first trip to Hawaii for the 2006 Pro Bowl, Moorman continued to take the time to spend with kids in the community as he participated in an NFL-sponsored visit to the Kapiolani Medical Center in Waikiki, Honolulu.

Most recently he was selected as the 2005 Arthur S. Arkush Humanitarian of the Year award from Pro Football Weekly.

▼ PRO: Signed with the Bills on March 21, 2006 after spending the previous four seasons with the Green Bay Packers. Was the second of Green Bay's two fifth round draft picks (164th overall) in 2002.

▼ 2005: served as Green Bay's third-string QB for all 16 games...

▼ 2004: Took over first-time role as the Packers' primary backup quarterback in Week 5 after Favre's long-time understudy, Pederson, incurred a season-ending rib/back injury... Went on to play in five games, completing 23 of 33 passes (69.7 percent) for 314 yards and four touchdowns with zero interceptions, for a passer rating of 139.4; his 33 attempts were the most ever by a Green Bay quarterback in a season without an INT...Dressed but did not play in eight regular-season contests and was inactive for the other three games...Also was a DNP for NFC Wild Card playoff meeting with Minnesota (Jan. 9)...Received his most extensive NFL playing time in regular-season finale at Chicago (Jan. 2) with the Packers already having clinched the NFC North title and no chance to better their seed in the playoffs...Entered Bears contest against a No. 1 defense six minutes into the second quarter, and finished 7 of 13 for 131 yards and one touchdown...Led Green Bay to a touchdown on his initial possession in win over Chicago, culminating the efficient five-play, 71-yard drive with a 25-yard pass to Javon Walker at the back of the end zone ... had been pressed into action vs. NYG (10/3) on what turned out to be the last play of the game, connected with Robert Ferguson on a 24-yard pass (Nall's first NFL completion) ... The No. 2 signal caller with Pederson out for the year, saw his first extended playing time eight days later vs. Tennessee (Oct. 11), going in late in blowout loss... Closed out Titans contest with a 7 of 8 passing performance, for 64 yards, including his initial NFL scoring throw (1 yard to Walker), for a passer rating of 139.6...All seven of his completions came on the game's final drive, with four passes covering 10-or-more yards...Also received substantial playing time at Philadelphia (Dec. 5), relieving Favre at the start of the fourth period with victory out of reach...Hit on eight of 11 passes for 95 yards and a pair of scores, a 138.3 passer rating, against the Eagles; found William Henderson for a 1-yard TD (the Packers' first of the game), then drove Green Bay 84 yards on its final scoring drive, capped by a 17-yard completion to Walker...Kneled down with the final two snaps of victory over Dallas (Oct. 24)...Dressed but did not play in regular-season games at Detroit (Oct. 15), at Washington (Oct. 31), vs. Minnesota (Nov. 14), at Houston (Nov. 21), against St. Louis (Nov. 29), vs. Detroit (Dec. 12), against Jacksonville (Dec. 19) and at Minnesota (Dec. 24)...Though sidelined for the first two weeks of training camp, had been able to hold off challengers Couch and Scott McBrien to hang onto the No. 3 quarterback spot...Suffered a right hamstring strain on the first day of full-squad workouts (Aug. 2)...Returned to practice on a limited basis Aug. 11 but sat out the first two preseason games...

▼ 2003: Spent a second straight season as Green Bay's No. 3 quarterback...Was inactive for 15 regular-season games, plus both playoff contests...Made NFL debut when he closed out Monday night victory at Oakland (Dec. 22) by taking the final two snaps and kneeling down...Was credited with two rushing attempts for minus-2 yards...Had turned back a training camp challenge from Smith, completing 27 of 52 passes (51.9 percent) for 317 yards and no touchdowns, with two interceptions, for a preseason rating of 54.7...Started all 10 games for the Scottish Claymores in 2003...Guiding a league-leading offense, he paced all quarterbacks in touchdown passes (18) and passer rating (95.9)...Was named as the quarterback on the All-NFL Europe team...Completed 58.5 percent of his passes (151 of 258) and threw seven interceptions, but had only one INT in the final four games, a span in which the Claymores were 4-0...In Week 8 against the Amsterdam Admirals (May 24), completed 22 of 31 passes for 313 yards and three touchdowns to win NFL 'Offensive Player of the Week' honors...In Week 9, had a perfect 158.3 quarterback rating against the Barcelona Dragons (May 31), completing 14 of 16 passes for 207 yards and three TDs... Scotland finished in a three-way tie for the league's best record, but trailed the Frankfurt Galaxy and Rhein Fire in both tiebreakers...

▼ 2002: Served as the Packers' No. 3 quarterback...Was inactive for all 16 regular-season games as well as playoff contest with Atlanta (Jan. 4)...Had finished the preseason with a flourish after early accuracy troubles, ending non-league play with an 80.8 passer rating (20 of 45 for 290 yards and two touchdowns — with no interceptions)...Orchestrated game-winning drive in preseason finale vs. Tennessee (Aug. 30)...Became the Packers' first drafted rookie QB on an opening day roster since Aaron Brooks in 1999...Was the second of two fifth-round draft choices by Green Bay (164th overall and 10th quarterback) in 2002.

▼ COLLEGE: Started only season at Northwestern (La.) State (2001) after transferring from Louisiana State...Lettered three times at LSU (1998-2000) after redshirting in 1997...Most memorable collegiate contest occurred as redshirt freshman late in '98; came off bench without warning at Notre Dame and led LSU on fierce comeback bid, in losing cause...Two starts at LSU were in bookend fashion, the last game on '98 schedule and first contest on '99 slate...However, that '99 opener, which came after he beat out teammates Josh Booty and Rohan Davey in heated preseason competition, was first step toward eventual transfer to NSU...Bench at halftime, didn't start another Tigers game, quickly falling behind Booty, a more popular Louisiana product...Kept level head, and even volunteered to play receiver when injuries depleted position...Last run of bad luck at LSU came, ironically, before game at Florida against Steve Spurrier, who had offered him a scholarship in high school; holding for placements in pregame warm-ups, fielded low snap and kicker's foot broke his thumb, ending his 2000 campaign... Over the 1998-2000 seasons, had 35 completions in 79 attempts for 431 yards and no touchdowns, with four interceptions, in 17 career games at LSU (two starts)...Frustrated, feeling he was as good as some of the other top collegiate QBs, his own outlook spiked after that season when he transferred to Northwestern State...Beat out returning Demons starter and finally got first extended playing time as a collegian...Answered opportunity by establishing single-season school passing record (2,022 yards), leading NSU to Division I-AA playoffs and earning Southland

Conference 'Newcomer of the Year' honors... Completed 142 of 250 attempts (56.8 percent) during the regular season, for 2,022 yards and 11 touchdowns with three interceptions, in nine games...Threw for 339 yards on 24 of 46 passing, with one TD, in Division I-AA playoff loss at Montana, the eventual national champion...Also threw the javelin in college and finished 14th for NSU at the 2001 NCAA Championships after taking second at '01 Southland Conference meet (227-11)...At LSU, had come in 16th at the 2000 NCAA Championships...Personal best (229-6) was good for third at the 2000 Southeastern Conference Championships...Earned B.A. degree in general studies.

▼ PERSONAL: Given name Craig Matthew Nall...Name is pronounced NAHL... Born in Alexandria, La. ...Married the former Amanda Crain in March 2005...Threw for 5,038 yards and 38 TDs at Alexandria (La.) High School... Named to Atlanta Journal-Constitution 'Super Southern 100,' Baton Rouge Advocate 'Super Dozen '97,' and New Orleans Times-Picayune Top 20 Blue Chip List...Considered after his senior year the best high school quarterback from Louisiana, a state that has produced several NFL QBs, turned down multiple national powers to attend LSU...Was ranked nationally as a prep javelin thrower, and also lettered three years in baseball ...Posted the country's fourth-longest javelin throw as a high school senior and won state championship...Since high school, has worked with the students of his mother, Susie, at the Louisiana Special Education Center... Also played in the 2005 Brett Favre Celebrity Softball Game this past June at Fox Cities Stadium in Grand Chute, Wis. ...In past years, also has given time to the Wisconsin National Guard (speaking to at-risk teens at the Challenge Academy), the NFL Hometown Huddle (doing landscaping and painting at the Green Bay west side Boys & Girls Club), March of Dimes (through participation in the Edgar Bennett Celebrity Bowling event), St. Vincent Hospital (by visiting and signing autographs at a Christmas party for children with cancer) and Children's Miracle Network (by signing autographs at the Fox River Mall in Appleton, Wis., in exchange for donations to the organization)...Also has played golf in support of the March of Dimes' Walk America program, the Brett Favre Fourward Foundation and Sharper's Kids, the foundation of ex-teammate Darren Sharper...Additionally has taken part in bowling and golf events to benefit 'Hunter's Dream,' a foundation created by his agent, Robb Nelson, to raise money for children with Sturge-Weber Syndrome and other neurological diseases (Nelson's son, Hunter, was born with SWS and passed away this past May 29 at age 5)... Previously worked as an instructor at Marco Rivera's youth football clinic in Puerto Rico during the 2004 offseason... Was involved with the Fellowship of Christian Athletes while at NSU... Father, Malcolm, played linebacker at Northwestern (La.) State before transferring to Louisiana College after freshman season ...Is an avid deer hunter...Also enjoys fishing, playing golf and surfing the internet...Also spends a great deal of time with his two Jack Russell terriers, Abby and Odie, whom he brought into his home shortly after their birth early in 2004...Has held past jobs as an assistant electrician and as a salesman for an industrial vacuum service, making pitches to corporate clients... While participating in NFL Europe in the spring of 2003, cites his memorable non-football experiences as playing the Old Course at St. Andrew's, visiting the Berlin Wall and relaxing on a Barcelona beach.

▼ COLLEGE: The Hurricanes' star receiver, Roscoe was regarded as a home run threat every time he touched the ball. He has a rare combination of breakaway speed, a quick burst, an impressive change of pace and good catching ability. Parrish can elude tacklers in the open field or in traffic, and has a knack for making tacklers miss. He has been called by head coach Larry Coker as "the most exciting player I've ever coached." Parrish redshirted at Miami in 2001 and took over punt return duties the following year. He gained 336 yards on 25 returns (13.4 avg) and started two games on offense, catching 14 passes for 270 yards and a touchdown. He finished the 2003 season with 24 catches for 322 yards (13.4 avg) and two touchdowns. Roscoe also totaled 240 yards with a score on 23 punt returns (10.4 avg). The 2004 season saw Parrish become the offense's primary target. He started eight games and caught a career-high 43 passes for 693 yards (16.1 avg) and eight touchdowns. His eight scoring grabs rank eighth on the school's season-record list. Roscoe also gained 324 yards on 20 punt returns (16.2 avg) with two touchdowns and carried eight times for 52 yards (6.5 avg). Parrish closed out his career with 81 receptions for 1285 yards (15.9 avg) and eleven touchdowns in 35 games. His eleven scoring grabs are tied for tenth on Miami's all-time record list. He returned 68 punts for 900 yards (13.2 avg) and three scores. Only Santana Moss (six, 1997-2000) returned more punts for touchdowns in school history. His 900 yards rank fourth on the Hurricanes' career-record list behind Kevin Williams (939, 1990-92), Eddie Dunn (1153, 1936-38) and Moss (1196). Roscoe also carried 18 times for 178 yards (9.9 avg) and a touchdown.

BUFFALO BILLS JUNIOR PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

For the past four years the Buffalo Bills have offered the Junior Player Development (J.P.D.) program at Buffalo's Riverside High School. J.P.D. is a four-week, 12-session football program that is free for up to 200 participants between the ages 12-15 yrs. old. This introductory youth tackle football program teaches all basic fundamentals, such as tackling and blocking at every practice.

This structured and controlled environment enables all players to learn at their comfort level. All practices are broken into instructional segments lasting no more than 15 minutes. The particular assigned position of the day is taught in an upbeat tempo that holds a player's interest throughout the entire practice.

The program integrates on-field skills development with life skills and character development. As they plan for future high school interscholastic activities, participants receive instruction from selected youth, high school and college football coaches, as well as counseling that focuses around a weekly life skill. Each life skill theme is addressed through the context of football with instructors making connections between life skills as they are applied on the field, in school, at home and in the community. For more information about the Buffalo Bills JPD program visit www.buffalobills.com or call 716-648-1800.

In November 2005, Spikes hosted his first annual fashion show known as First and Ten: A Fashion Extravaganza. The event raised money to benefit Spikes' 51 Ways for Charity, Inc and Women & Children's Hospital of Buffalo. The event featured silent and live auctions, dinner and a fashion show with Bills players and their spouses as models showcasing the latest fashions, furs and jewelry.

51 Ways, Inc. was founded by Pro Bowl linebacker Takeo Spikes and linebacker Carlos Emmons of the New York Giants. The foundation is dedicated to supporting families of children diagnosed with cancer and/or blood disorders by providing financial, spiritual and physical resources. Plans are set to host the second annual fashion extravaganza in Buffalo during the 2006 season.

In May 2006, Women & Children's Hospital of Buffalo awarded Spikes with the 2005 Champion for Children Award, which honors special supporters for their volunteer service to the hospital. A strong supporter of Women & Children's Hospital, Spikes' First and Ten Fashion Extravaganza raised $11,000 to benefit the Center for Hematology and Oncology. Spikes is a frequent visitor with patients receiving care at Women & Children's Hospital, including his annual holiday party for patients treated for HIV/AIDS during which he buys presents and signs autographs for guests.

In July of 2006, Spikes hosted the 4th annual 51 Ways Charity Weekend in Atlanta with an entire weekend filled with events to raise money for the Raising Expectations Foundation in Atlanta, Georgia. Raising Expectations is a nonprofit mentoring and tutoring program. They educate and empower children and youth in challenging circumstances, by providing them with an opportunity to build strong academic skills and developing self-confidence, pride and leadership skills. Spikes and 51 Ways brought celebrities and athletes to Atlanta from around the country to support the event and to raise awareness around the city. BUFFALO BILLS YOUTH STADIUM ADDS NEW FEATURES

In 2004, the Buffalo Bills became pioneers in NFL Youth Football circles by becoming the first NFL franchise to open a facility dedicated for youth football on the same grounds as the team headquarters.

Last season, the Buffalo Bills Youth Football Stadium began to expand. The stadium located next to Ralph Wilson Stadium added new bleachers to accommodate 500 fans and a press box that features a sound system, control panel for the scoreboard and a camera deck.

The Bills received a matching grant from the NFL Youth Football Fund to assist in paying for the renovations.

The Bills became the first NFL franchise to open a facility dedicated for youth football on the same grounds as the team headquarters, pioneering an initiative first presented by NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue at the NFL Owners Meeting in March 2004.

The manicured, regulation-size grass football field is located behind Ralph Wilson Stadium in a space formally occupied by the Bills' outdoor practice field. A full-size scoreboard is featured above the South end zone.

The field will be used by teams in the Western New York Youth Tackle Football Federation, which consists of approximately 300 youth football teams from as far north as Niagara Falls, NY stretching west through Erie County into Pennsylvania.

Throughout the year, the Bills will use the facility for youth football-related events such as NFL High School and Junior Player Development programs, NFL FLAG games and Pepsi Punt, Pass and Kick competitions.

BUFFALO BILLS STUDENT LEADERS PROGRAM

Entering its fourth year in 2006, the Buffalo Bills Student Leaders Program is designed to provide students with unique experiences that will develop leadership skills in preparation for their continuing education. The program is open to high school students who will be juniors or seniors as of September 2006.

Students completed an application that included an essay where the candidates were asked to describe a situation in which they have demonstrated leadership. Finalists were then interviewed throughout June.

As a part of the program, the Bills host monthly meetings with the selected students. They will go behind the scenes of the Buffalo Bills where they will learn about a variety of careers and meet professionals within the organization and community. The Student Leaders will also have the opportunity to attend Bills games, volunteer at community events, assist various Bills departments during select home games and serve as Bills ambassadors to their school.

The 2006-07 Buffalo Bills Student Leader Class is made up of students from the following Western New York schools:

Allegheny-Limestone High School, Attica High School, Bishop Timon - St. Jude High School, Buffalo Academy - Visual & Performing Arts, Buffalo Academy of the Sacred Heart, Burgard Vocational High School, Canisius High School, City Honors High School, East Aurora High School, Ellicottville High School, Hamburg High School, Holy Angels Academy High School, Immaculata Academy, Kenmore East Senior High School, Lancaster High School, Leonard Da Vinci High School, Maple Grove Jr./Sr. High School, Maryvale High School, Mt. ▼ 2001: Pro Bowl selection for the third consecutive season, and second as a starter... earned All-NFL honors from Sports Illustrated... named to the All-Madden Team for the third time... led an Eagles secondary that allowed 179 passing yards per game, the lowest in the NFC and the second lowest in the NFL... started in every game he played (15 regular season starts and three playoff starts) for the seventh straight season... finished the year with 79 total tackles, including 50 solo and 29 assists... registered his highest single season sack total of his career with 1.5 ... intercepted three passes for 22 yards and defended 22 passes... forced two fumbles... intercepted a pass and defended another, while recording six tackles in the Eagles season opener vs. StL. (9/9/01)... helped hold Sea. (9/23) to just 21 yards of passing offense, the lowest by an Eagles defense in over 30 years... registered a season-high nine tackles, including seven solo stops, defended one pass and forced a fumble vs. AZ (10/7)... defended three passes in wins at AZ (11/4) and vs. Min. (11/11)... also intercepted a pass and forced a fumble vs. Min... recorded 1.5 sacks at Dal. (11/18) on QB Ryan Leaf, equaling his career season-high sack total in one game... intercepted his third pass of the season vs. SD (12/9) and also defended two passes... tallied eight tackles and defended two passes vs. NYG (12/30)... was inactive for the Eagles season finale at TB (1/6/02)... totaled 11 tackles, one INT and one pass defense in three playoff games vs. TB (1/12), at Chi. (1/19) and at StL. (1/27)... made an over-the-shoulder INT on Brad Johnson in the end zone of the NFC Wild Card game vs. TB...also recorded six tackles and one pass defense vs. TB...

▼ 2000: Returned to the Pro Bowl, this time as a starter, after leading the Eagles with five INTs and finishing sixth on the club with 92 tackles...started all 16 regular season games and both postseason contests...held opponents without a reception in six games and did not have a pass thrown in his direction in three contests...at GB (9/17), intercepted Brett Favre with an over-the-shoulder catch...at NO (9/24), intercepted two passes for the 3rd time in his career and recovered a fumble by Ricky Williams which led to an Eagles TD...at AZ (10/15) intercepted Jake Plummer...at Cle. (12/10) made an over-the-shoulder INT off Doug Pederson at the Browns' 3-yd. line and also recovered a 4th qtr. fumble with under six minutes left and the Browns within striking distance...in the NFC Wild Card game vs. TB, helped hold the Bucs' WRs to just three receptions with 5 pass knockdowns.

▼ 1999: In just 14 games played, tied for 1st in the NFL with a career-high seven INTs while earning a trip to the Pro Bowl for the first time in his career...became the first Eagle to top the entire NFL in INTs since Bill Bradley did so in 1972...in addition to his thefts, the multi-talented cornerback ranked 5th on the team with a career-high 100 tackles, tied for 2nd in tackles for a loss (5), 2nd in forced fumbles (4) and 3rd in pass knockdowns (15)...was directly responsible for eight of the Eagles' league best 46 take-aways...was originally selected as the first alternate at cornerback in the Pro Bowl balloting...ended up playing in the game for an injured Deion Sanders and notched a game-high nine tackles...posted a career-high 15 tackles (12 solo) in the opener vs. AZ (9/12) and also forced a fumble...vs. TB (9/19), became the first Eagles cornerback ever to record a sack and an INT in the same game (QB Trent Dilfer was his victim for both)...along with 12 tackles (2 for loss), posted an INT off of Kent Graham at NYG (10/3)...vs. Dal. (10/10), had 9 tackles, an INT off of Troy Aikman and a forced fumble of Emmitt Smith...a week later at Chi. (10/17), his 35-yd. INT return off Cade McNown set up a FG, he later departed that game with a groin injury and was deactivated in games 7-8...returned to the starting lineup at Car. (11/7)...posted an INT off of Brad Johnson vs. Wash. (11/14) and forced a fumble by WR Albert Connell...vs. NE. (12/19), notched two 4th qtr. INTs off of Drew Bledsoe in the Eagles 24-9 win.

▼ 1998: Despite a slow start to the season due to a quad injury suffered in the preseason, went on to share the team lead in INTs (2) with Brian Dawkins and rank 2nd on the club in passes knocked down with 13...reaggravated the quad injury in the season opener vs. Sea. and was sidelined for the next two contests, breaking a streak of 60 consecutive starts...also missed game 10 at Wash. due to a concussion suffered a week earlier vs. Det. (11/8)...notched INTs vs. GB's Brett Favre and Arz.'s Jake Plummer...also posted the first sack of his career (vs. Dal.'s Troy Aikman on Monday Night Football, 11/2).

▼ 1997: Entered the season paired with RCB Bobby Taylor to give the Eagles one of the top cornerback tandems in the league, but when Taylor's season ended with a knee injury in game 6, Vincent stepped up his play, matching up well against the opponents' top receiver week after week...started all 16 games at LCB and finished the season leading the Eagles in passes defended (24) and tied with FS Brian Dawkins for the club lead in INTs (3 -- at Min. (9/28), vs. Pit. (11/23) and at Wash. (12/21))...starred in a 13-12 win over Dallas (10/26), limiting WR Michael Irvin to just three receptions, all in the 1st half...in the first Dal. game (9/15), broke up consecutive deep passes to Anthony Miller before being sidelined by a strained left shoulder...shared the punt return chores with Freddie Solomon for games 5-6.

▼ 1996: A highly sought after free agent "transition" player, Vincent officially became an Eagle on 3/3/96 and, along with RCB Bobby Taylor, provided the Eagles with one of the NFL's top cornerback duos...started all 16 games at the LCB spot...after missing the first two preseason games with a strained groin, returned to the lineup in a season-opening win at Wash. (9/1)...in the final seconds of a 31-21 win at Dal. (10/26), Vincent etched his name into the NFL record books: with Dallas trailing by three and facing a 3rd-n-goal situation at the Eagles' three, MLB James Willis INT'd a Troy Aikman pass four yards deep in the end zone and returned it 14 yards, Willis then lateraled the ball to Vincent who raced the final 90 yards for a game-clinching score...as such, the combined efforts of Vincent and Willis resulted in the longest INT return for a TD in NFL history (topping the 103-yd. effort by San Diego's Vencie Glenn vs. Den. on 11/29/87)...other big plays included INTs off Atl.'s Jeff George (9/22), Wash.'s Gus Frerotte (11/17), and the Giants'

Dave Brown (12/1)...helped seal a win vs. Car. (10/27) when he forced two fumbles deep in Eagles' territory.

▼ 1995: In his fourth and final season with Miami, Vincent started 16 games and the AFC Wild Card Game at Buf. and continued to establish himself as one of the finest young cornerbacks in the NFL...tied for third in the AFC with five INTs...had three INTs off Jets' QBs as he pilfered a Bubba Brister pass at NYJ (10/22) and had two thefts off Boomer Esiason on 9/3, including one that he returned 69 yards for a TD...also registered INTs vs. KC's Steve Bono and Pit.'s Mike Tomczak.

▼ 1994: Rebounded from a 1993 knee injury to play in 13 games, including 12 starts at LCB... finished with 62 tackles and team-high totals of five INTs and 20 passes defended...those five thefts tied him for sixth in the AFC and 10th in the NFL...was the Dolphin winner of the 1994 Ed Block Courage Award, an honor given annually to one player on each NFL team for his courage, strength, and leadership...in season opener vs. NE (9/4), registered an INT off Drew Bledsoe but was inactive for games 2-4 because of a sore knee...returned to his starring role at Buf. (10/9) ...posted 2nd INT of season off Bledsoe vs. NE (10/30) ...4th qtr. interception at NYJ (11/27) set up a Dolphin TD in a come-from-behind win...registered an INT and his first career TD vs. KC (12/12), his score came following an interception by teammate Gene Atkins, who returned the ball 18 yards before laterally to Vincent, who then raced the final 58 yards... started both postseason contests.

▼ 1993: Despite having his season cut short when he suffered a knee injury in game 13, finished the year with 68 tackles, 2 INTs, a fumble recovery and 11 passes defended en route to being voted by the South Florida media as the Dolphins' outstanding defensive back... his interceptions came in the season opener at Ind. (9/5) and vs. Wash. (10/4) ...tore ligaments and cartilage in his right knee on a reverse of a punt return vs. Pit. (12/13) and underwent reconstructive surgery on 12/23.

▼ 1992: After Miami made him the 7th overall pick in the '92 draft, Vincent went on to start the final 14 regular season games and both playoff contests at LCB...finished his rookie campaign with 77 tackles, two INTs, and a team-high 13 defended passes...earned NFL all-rookie honors from Football News, Pro Football Weekly, and College and Pro Football Newsweekly...opened the season on inactive list

(hamstring)...posted a season-high 10 tackles at Buf. (10/4), registered his first career INT off of Jeff George at Ind. (11/8) ...also recorded a theft vs. Hou. (11/22) ...truly made his mark in the postseason as he garnered AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors following a five-tackle, two-INT performance vs. SD (1/10) ...both of his INTs in that game (off Stan Humphries) led to TDs in the Dolphins' 31-0 win as he became the first rookie in Dolphin history to intercept a pass in a playoff game.

▼ COLLEGE: A four-year letterman and three-year starter at Wisconsin...one of the most honored defensive backs as a senior, when he garnered first team All-America honors from College and Pro Football Newsweekly, The Football News and The Sporting News, while also earning co-defensive player-of-the-year accolades from the Big Ten...was also a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, given to the nation's top defensive back...a dangerous return man for the Badgers as well, he averaged 11.4 yards and scored 3 TDs on punt returns and had a 22.0-yard kickoff return average during his collegiate career.

▼ PERSONAL: Vincent embraces the opportunity to provide for his community through civic and business leadership...he owns all or part of several successful ventures including: Eltekton - a financial, insurance and business services company; and Essence Hair, Nail and Body Spa...Through Advisory Boards and Boards of Directors, Troy actively participates in the leadership of organizations such as Christian Athletes United for Spiritual Empowerment (CAUSE). He is currently the president of the NFL Players' Association, serves as the Philadelphia spokesperson for All Pro Dad, Member of Board of Directors of the University of Wisconsin Foundation, Member of the Board of Directors of the State of New Jersey's After 3 Program and the first active NFL player to serve on the National Board of Directors for Pop Warner Football...he studied Urban and Regional Planning at the University of Wisconsin at Madison...was born in Trenton, but graduated from Pennsbury HS in Fallington, PA where he earned letters in football, basketball and track...he resides in Yardley, PA with his wife Tommi, their daughter Desiré, two sons, Troy Jr. and Taron and twins Hadassah Grace and Tanner Abraham.

In the Community...

Troy Vincent continues his vast amount of charity work here in his new adopted hometown of Buffalo and in his native Philadelphia-area. Vincent's most charitable work comes from his Love Thy Neighbor Development and Opportunity Corporation based out of Trenton. Troy Vincent and his wife, Tommi, founded Love Thy Neighbor in 2003 after 12 years of philanthropy as The Troy Vincent Foundation. Love Thy Neighbor Community Development & Opportunity Corporation is committed to comprehensive community development and strives to build thriving neighborhoods by creating opportunities for positive social and economic change. In 2005, Vincent and Love Thy Neighbor hosted their second annual "Taste of Trenton" event. The event, which featured food from the top restaurants in the Trenton area and silent and live auctions, raised $60,000 for Love Thy Neighbor. Vincent recruited more 20 current and former athletes to help participate in the fundraising event.

LTN implemented a number of programs this past year including A.E.I.O.U., which provides student-athletes with structured tutorial programs to strengthen their knowledge base in NCAA core courses. The program also focuses on building a foundation for lifelong learning and provides student-athletes with SAT Prep courses to develop test taking strategies and techniques for increased performance on the SAT.

LTN also launched the DNA (Dad Needs Assistance) program. DNA is a fatherhood mentoring program developed by LTN in collaboration with social workers, community leaders and school faculty. DNA's mission is to promote positive involvement and interaction between fathers and their children, and to increase the ability of fathers to meet the social, emotional, financial and educational needs of their children. DNA meetings are held weekly at Trenton Central High School. For more information about Love Thy Neighbor visit www.troyvincent.com.

In September 2005, Troy Vincent hosted the first All Pro Dad Seminar-An Event for Fathers and Kids-in the Buffalo Bills Fieldhouse. All Pro Dad is the fatherhood program of Family First, a national non-profit organization based in Tampa, FL. The 2005 event included 115 fathers and over 300 children. Vincent addressed a room full of fathers and some mothers for more than 45 minutes about the importance of being an active participant in children's lives.

In November 2005, for the second consecutive year, Vincent hosted more than 25 student-athletes from his hometown of Trenton, New Jersey to attend the Bills' 14-3 victory over the Kansas City Chiefs. Most of the students played football at Trenton Central High School. The trip served as a reward for their progress in the classroom. After the game, Vincent took the players, most of who attended the professional football game for the first time; on a tour of the Bills practice facility and locker room. He also spoke to the students and fielded questions.

BUFFALO BILLS HIGH SCHOOL PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Buffalo Bills High School Player Development provides incoming, fall season, sophomores, juniors and seniors a program focusing on academic counseling as well as specific football skill training by position. Each participant gains a full awareness of what it takes to become a successful high school and collegiate student-athlete, along with the resources and information to meet NCAA

Clearinghouse requirements.

The program is comprised of an online academic and life skill curriculum and 10 hours of on-field, fundamental skill development by position. All program participants spend five hours of on-field programming at an offensive position and the remaining five hours at a defensive position of their coach's choice. Guest speakers address participants on life skills and football issues for 20 minutes prior to each practice.

At the conclusion of the program, each participant receives a personalized portfolio. This portfolio measures each player's skill development by position and provides a complete breakdown of that player's skill techniques. It also notes issues that need to be addressed in order to improve and advance to the next skill level.

Participants have the opportunity to meet with counselors to review and evaluate their academic standings and to receive an academic recommendation action plan. This plan positions them to be eligible and fully prepared to meet NCAA Clearinghouse requirements and student-athlete demands while in college.

Bills HSPD provides high school players from inner-city public schools with academic support through counseling in areas such as class standings, core course selection, maintaining a GPA, preparing for standardized tests and preparing for life after school. For more information about the Bills High School Player Development program visit www.buffalobills.com or call 716-648-1800.

In the Community...

Coy Wire participated in a "Gift of Warmth" party with 110 boys and girls at the Salvation Army community center. Coy visited with the children and enjoyed a pizza party. Each child received a gift bag with new hats, scarves and gloves for the winter. As part of the "Gift of Warmth" fans were encouraged to bring new warm clothing items to a home game to donate for the less fortunate in Western New York. He has developed the Most-High clothing line, a line of logo sports apparel to promote the mission and raise money for the Coy Wire "Caring" Foundation. The Foundation's mission is to provide Buffalo and the surrounding areas with a support structure focusing on promoting education, character building, goal setting skills and spiritual awareness.

BUFFALO BILLS YOUTH STADIUM ADDS NEW FEATURES

In 2004, the Buffalo Bills became pioneers in NFL Youth Football circles by becoming the first NFL franchise to open a facility dedicated for youth football on the same grounds as the team headquarters.

Last season, the Buffalo Bills Youth Football Stadium began to expand. The stadium located next to Ralph Wilson Stadium added new bleachers to accommodate 500 fans and a press box that features a sound system, control panel for the scoreboard and a camera deck.

The Bills received a matching grant from the NFL Youth Football Fund to assist in paying for the renovations.

The Bills became the first NFL franchise to open a facility dedicated for youth football on the same grounds as the team headquarters, pioneering an initiative first presented by NFL Commissioner Paul Tagliabue at the NFL Owners Meeting in March 2004.

The manicured, regulation-size grass football field is located behind Ralph Wilson Stadium in a space formally occupied by the Bills' outdoor practice field. A full-size scoreboard is featured above the South end zone.

The field will be used by teams in the Western New York Youth Tackle Football Federation, which consists of approximately 300 youth football teams from as far north as Niagara Falls, NY stretching west through Erie County into Pennsylvania.

Throughout the year, the Bills will use the facility for youth football-related events such as NFL High School and Junior Player Development programs, NFL FLAG games and Pepsi Punt, Pass and Kick competitions.

GAME 1: BILLS 22, Texans 7

SEPTEMBER 11, 2005 – RALPH WILSON STADIUM – (71,781)

- The Bills started fast in 2005 as the team came out of the gates strong in their sixth consecutive home opener and never looked back.
- In his first career start, JP Losman looked like a veteran in the pocket and orchestrated a 10-play 65-yard drive on the Bills first possession to set up a 35-yard Rian Lindell field goal. Losman went 6-7 on the drive, including a game-high 42-yard strike to Lee Evans.
- The Bills defense limited the Texans offense all day as Houston gained a mere 120 net yards and 25 net yards passing. The Bills forced the Texans to punt after an Aaron Schobel sack halted Houston's first drive. Losman orchestrated a second scoring drive off of the punt which set up another Rian Lindell 21-yard field goal to give the Bills a 6-0 lead. After a Troy Vincent interception, the Bills cashed in with a 42-yard field goal from kicker Rian Lindell to give the team a 9-0 lead. After Lindell's fourth field goal in the first half gave the Bills a 12-0 lead, Buffalo refused to settle for another field goal before half-time. With two minutes remaining in the half, the Bills decided to go for it on 4th-and-2 from the Houston 10 yard-line, and Willis McGahee converted the 4th down by slashing through the middle of the Texans defensive line for a four-yard gain.
- The drive was capped off by JP Losman's first career TD pass to an unlikely target, OL Jason Peters, from one-yard out and the Bills took a 19-7 lead into the half. The Bills scored on five consecutive drives in the first half as the offense was put in good scoring position by an attacking Bills defense that limited the Texans to 58 total net first-half yards and posted two first-half turnovers.
- The Bills defense remained the story of the second half, forcing three Texans turnovers, including Troy Vincent's second interception of the day and a Takeo Spikes' sack which forced a David Carr fumble. The final score of the game came on Rian Lindell's career-high fifth field goal. The kicker also set a career-high in points with 16. The defense finished the game with five sacks and five takeaways and Willis McGahee led all rushers with 117 yards on 22 carries. Losman completed 17 passes for 170 yards and a touchdown in his debut and was sacked only once behind a stalwart offensive line.

2005 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 2: Buccaneers 19 , BILLS 3

SEPTEMBER 18, 2005 – RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM – (64,777)

- The Bills lost their first road game of the year at Tampa Bay by a score of 19-3. After a defensive struggle which contributed to a scoreless first quarter, Tampa Bay scored first when Shelton Quarles sack JP Losman out of bounds in the end zone to give the Bucs a 2-0 lead
- On the ensuing drive, the Bucs drove 67 yards on 11 plays and took 6:53 seconds off of the clock as Mike Alstott capped off the drive with a one-yard touchdown run. The key play of the Buccaneers scoring drive came on a 15-yard Brian Griese pass to Michael Clayton which advanced the Bucs to the Bills one-yard line.
- The Bills only score of the day came during the two-minute drill near the end of the first half. Buoyed by a 43-yard kick return, the Bills took advantage of a 14-yard run by Willis McGahee which set Rian Lindell to connect on a 40-yard field goal to pull the Bills to within six points at halftime.
- The second half was all Buccaneers as Brian Griese orchestrated a nine play 80-yard drive which included a key 34-yard pass to Michael Clayton and was capped off by a Carnell Williams three-yard touchdown run.
- Matt Bryant finished the scoring for the day with a 40-yard field goal with 9:22 remaining in the game.
- JP Losman led the Bills with 113 yards passing and Willis McGahee led the team with 34 yards rushing on 13 carries. Buccaneers running back Carnell Williams led all rushers with 128 yards on 24 carries while Brian Griese led all passers with 136 yards and a QB rating of 88.4.

GAME 3: Falcons 24, Bills 16

SEPTEMBER 25, 2005 – RALPH WILSON STADIUM – (72,032)

- The Bills suffered their first home defeat of 2005 by dropping an eight-point decision to the Falcons 24-16. The Falcons enjoyed a decided advantage on the offensive statistical page, as they outgained the Bills by almost 200 net yards finishing with 403 to the Bills 208.
- The Bills started out strong on the first drive of the game driving 50 yards in 13 plays, setting up a Rian Lindell 36 yd. field goal.
- The Falcons answered back on the second drive of the game and capitalized on two Buffalo roughing the passer penalties as Michael Vick hooked up with Dwayne Blakley for a nine-yard touchdown pass to give Atlanta a 7-3 lead. The Bills answered back immediately as the team used a 30-yard pass interference penalty on Atlanta DB Christian Morton to set up the second Lindell field goal of the game from 41 yards out to bring the Bills within one.
- On Atlanta's second possession of the game, the Falcons drove 74 yards and scored their second touchdown on a 15-yard pass from Mike Vick to Michael Jenkins to give them a 14-6 lead. The Bills answered back with an 11 play 80-yard drive of their own, led by a Willis McGahee 21-yard run and a JP Losman 16-yard pass, the drive capped off by an 8-yard touchdown scamper by McGahee to bring the Bills within one at 14-13.
- The Falcons closed the half with a Todd Peterson 30-yard field goal after Warrick Dunn's 59-yard run and Mike Vick's 10-yard run took the Falcons down to the Buffalo 19 yard-line.
- After a Chris Kelsay interception to start the third quarter, the Bills drove seven plays and 23 yards to set up Lindell's third field goal of the game from 30 yards out to pull within one. The Falcons answered with 12:54 remaining on the clock with a T.J. Duckett 12-yard touchdown run which put Atlanta ahead 24-16 for good.
- Willis McGahee led all rushers on the day with a career-high 140 yards while Mike Vick led the passers with 167 yards in the air. The Falcons rushed for 236 yards on the ground and Brian Finneran led the air attack with four receptions for 57 yards.

GAME 4: Saints 19, Bills 7

OCTOBER 2, 2005 – ALAMODOME – (58,688)

- The Bills opened up strong in the first ever regular season NFL game at the Alamodome in San Antonio, TX, but were unable to maintain the explosiveness of their first drive and fell to the Saints 19-7.
- Willis McGahee got into a rhythm fast, opening up the game with a 25-yard run to set the stage for the Bills lone touchdown of the game. JP Losman completed two passes to Lee Evans of 15 and 12 yards to set up a one-yard McGahee touchdown run which put the Bills out in front 7-0.
- After the first quarter ended with no other scoring, the Saints answered the Bills touchdown with a 23-yard John Carney field goal with 9:05 remaining in the second quarter. On the first play of the ensuing Bills drive, JP Losman misfired on a post pass to Eric Moulds and was intercepted by Jason Craft of the Saints who returned the interception 39 yards to the Bills 23 yard-line.
- The Saints took advantage of the Buffalo turnover, scoring a touchdown on a Aaron Brooks four yard run to give the Saints a 10-7 lead.
- The Bills drove 43 yards on the next drive but came away with no points when Rian Lindell missed his first field goal of the season as he was nine-of-nine entering the contest. The Saints took advantage of Lindell's miss and drove down to the Bills 22 yard-line on a key 26-yard reception by Donte Stallworth to set up John Carney's second field goal of the day from 40 yards out.
- Terrence McGee displayed what may be the most exciting play of the season thus far, as he took the ensuing kickoff back 82 yards before being stopped inside the Saints five-yard line as time expired in the half. McGee's 82-yard return was the second longest non-scoring return in Bills history.
- With neither team able to score in the third quarter, the Saints defense stopped Willis McGahee on a crucial 4th-and-one and took advantage of the momentum with John Carney's third field goal from 20 yards out. Carney finished the scoring for the day with a field goal from 37 yards out.
- Deuce McAllister led all rushers with 130 yards on 27 carries while Aaron Brooks and Donte Stallworth led all QBs and receivers. Brooks threw for 172 yards on 15 completions and Stallworth caught eight receptions for 129 yards.

GAME 5: BILLS 20, Dolphins 14

OCTOBER 9, 2005 – RALPH WILSON STADIUM - (72,160)

- Kelly Holcomb didn't waste any time in his first start as a Bill, leading the team to 17 first-half points and ultimately a 20-14 win over the Miami Dolphins. The Bills won the coin toss for the fifth straight week and the offense, led by Holcomb got on the board first with an 8-play, 67-yard drive capped off by a Willis McGahee one-yard touchdown run to give the Bills a 7-0 lead. The key play of the drive was a 49-yard pass from Holcomb to Lee Evans which led the Bills to the one-yard line. The play was Buffalo's longest of the season.
- After a Miami punt, the Bills marched down the field methodically on the team's second drive as Holcomb completed a 15-yard pass to Daimon Shelton and McGahee posted runs of nine and seven yards to set up a Rian Lindell 24-yard field goal which gave the Bills a 10-0 lead.
- The Bills special teams displayed their effectiveness on the Dolphins next drive as Sam Aiken recovered a fumble by Dolphins snapper John Denney. The Bills turned the turnover into a touchdown on two-yard pass from Holcomb to Moulds to give the Bills a 17-0 at halftime lead.
- The Dolphins got on the board with 8:34 remaining in the second half on a Gus Frerotte one-yard pass to W. Heller to bring Miami within ten. The touchdown pass was set up by a 52-yard pass from Frerotte to Marty Booker. Miami kept the scoring going on a 30-yard pass from Gus Frerotte to Randy McMichael to bring the Dolphins within three points.
- After a 53-yard kickoff return by Terrence McGee, the Bills called upon Rian Lindell to stretch the lead to six points, as the Buffalo kicker connected on a 47-yard field goal to give the Bills a 20-14 lead which Buffalo would not surrender.
- The Bills defense, which was impressive all day, stopped the Dolphins inside the red zone with under two minutes remaining when Nate Clements stripped running back Ronnie Brown and Troy Vincent recovered the fumble giving the Bills a chance to run out the clock.
- The Bills were led in rushing on the day by Willis McGahee, who ran 31 times for 86 yards with a touchdown. In his first start as a Bill, Kelly Holcomb completed 20 of 26 passes for 169 yards with a touchdown. The Bills defense forced four turnovers; three interceptions (Nate Clements, Terrence McGee, and Troy Vincent) and one forced fumble on the day.

2005 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 6: BILLS 27, Jets 17

OCTOBER 16, 2005 – RALPH WILSON STADIUM – (72,045)

- Kelly Holcomb became the only the fourth Bills quarterback to win his first two starts and Willis McGahee rushed for a career-high 143 yards on 29 carries as the Bills won their second straight home contest, defeating the Jets 27-17.
- McGahee got things started with a 23-yard run on the Bills opening possession setting up the first score of the day, an eight-yard touchdown pass to Jonathan Smith which was set up by a key Sam Aiken block near the goal line. The touchdown reception was the first of Smith's career.
- After exchanging punts, the Bills took over and were again led by two huge McGahee runs of 14 and 18 yards which put Holcomb in a position to find Eric Moulds on a 15-yard touchdown reception. The touchdown from Holcomb to Moulds was the second in as many weeks and gave the Bills a 14-0 lead.
- The Jets got on the board with 5:59 remaining in the first half after a 49-yard run by Curtis Martin set up a 44-yard Mike Nugent field goal, making the score 14-3 in favor of Buffalo. The Jets first-half scoring was not over yet though, as Vinny Testaverde and Justin McCareins connected twice for 29 and 28 yards respectively to put the Jets in scoring position. A Nate Clements pass interference penalty took the Jets to the one yard-line where Curtis Martin capitalized with a one-yard touchdown run to pull the Jets within four points at 14-10.
- After Terrence McGee returned the ensuing kickoff 42 yards, Moulds drew a pass interference penalty and Rian Lindell connected on his longest field goal as a Bill from 50 yards out to give Buffalo a 17-10 halftime lead.
- The Bills defense flexed its muscles on the Jets first drive of the second half, as Angelo Crowell intercepted a Testaverde pass inside the red zone. The Bills capitalized on the interception and put together a 10-play, 82-yard drive which was highlighted by two key receptions by Eric Moulds and was capped off by a Willis McGahee one-yard touchdown run to put the Bills ahead 24-10.
- After a Holcomb interception, the Jets scored on a Testaverde one-yard touchdown run to bring the score within seven points. The Bills were too much though, as Rian Lindell connected on a 38-yard field goal to put the score at 27-17, and Terrence McGee posted his second interception of the year, picking off Testaverde late in the fourth quarter to allow the Bills to run out the clock.

GAME 7: Raiders 38, Bills 17

OCTOBER 23, 2005 – McAfee Coliseum – (42,779)

- The Bills started strong for the third straight week under Kelly Holcomb as the team put together an impressive 14 play, 82-yard opening drive capped off by a five-yard Lee Evans touchdown reception to put the Bills ahead 7-0. On the drive, Holcomb completed five of nine passes setting up the touchdown score.
- After going three-and-out on their first drive, the Raiders got on the board with a 25-yard Sebastian Janikowski field goal to bring the score to 7-3.
- After a Buffalo punt, Oakland took advantage of good field position and Kerry Collins completed a 18-yard pass to LaMont Jordan which set up a 22-yard touchdown pass from Collins to Randy Moss to give the Raiders a 10-7 lead.
- The Raiders came up big with a goal-line stand on the Bills next possession, stopping Daimon Shelton on a 4th-and-goal play. The Bills didn't let the disappointment of not scoring a touchdown bother them as Rian Lindell connected on his only field goal of the day from 41 yards out to tie the game at 10.
- The Raiders scored before halftime on a LaMont Jordan one-yard touchdown run to give Oakland a 17-10 halftime lead.
- The Raiders came out strong in the second half, as LaMont Jordan scored his second touchdown of the game on a 17-yard run to cap off Oakland's first possession of the second half and give the Raiders a 24-10 lead.
- The Bills made a valiant comeback effort, cutting the Raider lead to seven on a Josh Reed nine-yard touchdown reception to start the fourth quarter, but the Raiders were too much for the Bills, as they pulled away from Buffalo by adding a LaMont Jordan seven-yard TD run and a Zack Crockett two-yard TD run to close out the game 38-17.
- Willis McGahee led the Bills with 16 carries for 50 yards and Kelly Holcomb completed 19-27 passes for 159 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions for a 110.0 passer rating.

GAME 8: Patriots 21, Bills 16

OCTOBER 30, 2005 – GILLETTE STADIUM – (68,756)

- Although the Bills led for 54 minutes of the game, the Patriots showed why they are the defending Super Bowl Champions as they came back from nine points down and defeated the Bills 21-16.
- The Bills opened up the game in familiar fashion, moving the ball steadily down the field and eating up 7:21 off the clock before a Brian Moorman punt pinned the Patriots inside the 10 yard-line. After the Bills forced New England to punt on their first possession, Kelly Holcomb led another 11-play Buffalo drive which ended with a Rian Lindell missed field goal from 46 yards out. On the Patriots next possession, Aaron Schobel recovered a Patrick Pass fumble near midfield to put the Bills in good position for the first points of the night.
- On the Bills next possession, Willis McGahee registered runs of eight, 11, and six yards setting up Rian Lindell's first field goal of the night to give the Bills a 3-0 advantage. The first half ended when Adam Vinatieri missed a 44-yard field goal.
- The Patriots got on the board on the first possession of the second half, as Tom Brady connected with Deion Branch from 33 yards out to put New England ahead 7-3.
- The Bills answered back, as Kelly Holcomb hit Eric Moulds on a 55-yard touchdown pass, the Bills longest play from scrimmage of the year. The catch marked Moulds' third touchdown of the season and the wideout led the Bills with nine receptions for 125 yards on the night.
- The Bills added two Rian Lindell field goals in the fourth quarter, but they were not enough to hold off the defending champions, as the Patriots moved to within two points on a one-yard Corey Dillon touchdown run and after a Rosevelt Colvin sack and forced fumble of Kelly Holcomb with 6:20 remaining in the game. Corey Dillon capped off the scoring for the night and sealed the victory with his second one-yard touchdown run of the night to give the Pats a 21-16 lead.
- Willis McGahee ran well for the Bills, posting a game-high 136 yards on 31 carries. Holcomb led all passers with 263 yards and Aaron Schobel moved ahead of Darryl Talley for fifth on the Bills all-time sack list as he posted two sacks of Tom Brady giving him 39.5 for his Bills career.

GAME 9: BILLS 14, Chiefs 3

NOVEMBER 13, 2005 – RALPH WILSON STADIUM - (72,093)

- The Bills used a four-takeaway day from the defense and a solid relief performance from secondyear quarterback J.P. Losman to defeat the Chiefs 14-3 and improve their record to 4-5 on the year.
- After a 24-yard run by Larry Johnson, the Chiefs scored first when Lawrence Tynes connected on a field goal from 35 yards out near the end of the first quarter.
- Bills defensive captain London Fletcher made a key play on the Chiefs next possession by sacking Trent Green and forcing a fumble which Jeff Posey recovered and returned 46 yards to the Chiefs 12 yard-line. After two short runs by Willis McGahee, Holcomb was sacked and tumbled on a third down play, giving the ball back to the Chiefs. Holcomb suffered a head injury on the sack and would not return to the game.
- J.P. Losman saw action for the first time since the team's fourth game and was effective in relief, connecting with Lee Evans at just under the two-minute warning for a 33-yard touchdown to give the Bills a 7-3 lead.
- Angelo Crowell intercepted a Trent Green pass just before the end of the half, but the Bills were unable to capitalize on the turnover as Rian Lindell missed only his third field goal of the year from 28 yards out.
- With injuries forcing Troy Vincent and Sam Adams to sit out, Rashad Baker spelled Vincent and came through with his first interception of the year which he returned 18 yards to the Chiefs 26 yard-line, setting up the Bills second touchdown of the day when J.P. Losman connected with Lee Evans on a picture perfect pass from 29 yards out to put the Bills ahead 14-3.
- The defense held the Chiefs off for the rest of the game and finished the game stoutly, as the unit did not allow a touchdown for the first time since 12/7/03 when they gave up only two field goals vs. the Jets. Led by Aaron Schobel's two sacks, the Bills defense posted six sacks, the team's highest sack output since 12/12/04 when they registered seven vs. Cleveland.
- London Fletcher led the Bills with 20 tackles and Angelo Crowell, Rashad Baker, and Terrence McGee all tallied interceptions. J.P. Losman completed nine of 16 passes for 137 yards and two touchdowns and Lee Evans posted his most productive game of the year, registering two touchdown receptions for the third time in his career.

GAME 10: Chargers 48, BILLS 10

NOVEMBER 20, 2005 – QUALCOMM STADIUM - (65,602)

- The Chargers took a chance early in the game, going for a touchdown on fourth and goal from the one-yard line on the opening drive and it paid off. The LaDanian Tomlinson touchdown leap into the end zone foreshadowed the long day that the Buffalo defense would encounter, as they surrendered 478 total yards of offense in a 48-10 loss at San Diego.
- In his first start since week four at New Orleans, J.P. Losman led the Bills down the field on their first drive of the game and Rian Lindell capped off the drive by connecting on the fifth-longest field goal in team history from 53 yards out.
- The Chargers took control of the game as they scored three touchdowns on the next four drives to give them a 28-3 lead. Drew Brees connected with Antonio Gates from 27 yards out, Eric Parker from 23 yards out and Lorenzo Neal on a two-yard pass to put the Chargers ahead by 25.
- The Bills finally answered San Diego's touchdowns with a touchdown of their own with 1:23 left in the first half. J.P. Losman got the Bills within striking distance by posting a season-high 30-yard run and then hit Daimon Shelton on a three-yard pass to cap of the eight-play drive and give the Bills their lone touchdown of the game.
- San Diego scored their fifth touchdown just before the end of the first half when Brees hit Keenan McCardell on a 29-yard pass to put the Chargers ahead 35-10 at the half.
- Much like the first, the second half belonged to the Chargers as San Diego scored 13 unanswered points on two Nate Kaeding field goals and a powerful Michael Turner eight-yard touchdown run where he broke through numerous Bills defenders to find the end zone.
- Drew Brees led all passers with 339 yards on 28-of-33 passes and four touchdowns. Brees finished the game with a 149.1 passer rating. Keenan McCardell led all receivers with six receptions for 88 yards and a touchdown while LaDanian Tomlinson led all rushers with 67 yards and a touchdown on 19 attempts.

GAME 11: Panthers 13, Bills 9

November 27, 2005 – Ralph Wilson Stadium – (71,440)

- The Bills and Panthers combined for five field goals until late in the fourth quarter when the Panthers Jake Delhomme connected with Michael Gaines on a three-yard touchdown pass to give the Panthers a 13-9 lead which they would never relinquish.
- On their second possession of the game, the Panthers took hold of the ball for 16 plays and drove 76 yards in 11:18 minutes but had to settle for a 25-yard John Casey field goal when the drive stalled at the Buffalo eight yard-line.
- Buffalo responded to the score and launched a long drive of their own where JP Losman hooked up with Josh Reed on a key 29-yard third down conversion and Roscoe Parrish on a 17-yard pass to put the Bills in field goal range. Rian Lindell converted his first of three field goals on the day from 31 yards out to tie the score at three.
- On the ensuing drive, Aaron Schobel sacked Delhomme, forcing him to fumble which was recovered by Chris Kelsay. The turnover set up another Lindell field goal from 45 yards out as time expired in the first half.
- The Panthers tied the score up at six with the second John Kasey field goal of the day from 25 yards out as time expired in the third quarter.
- On the first drive of the fourth quarter, the Bills used a no-huddle attack to drive 48 yards on 12 plays, including two key Losman to Evans passes and vital nine and ten-yard runs by Willis McGahee to set up Rian Lindell's third field goal of the day which gave the Bills a 9-6 lead.
- The Panthers countered the Bills field goal with the final score and only touchdown of the game as they drove 68 yards in almost eight minutes to take a 13-9 lead on a three-yard pass from Jake Delhomme to Michael Gaines.
- DeShaun Foster led all rushers with 77 yards on 23 carries while Buffalo's Eric Moulds led all receivers with seven receptions for 84 yards. J.P. Losman was the game's leading passer, completing 16-29 passes for 197 yards.

GAME 12: Dolphins 24, Bills 23

DECEMBER 4, 2005 - DOLPHINS STADIUM - (72,051)

- The Bills came out of the gates on fire as the team scored on its first three drives when JP Losman connected with Lee Evans on three touchdown passes in the first quarter to give Buffalo a 21-0 lead. While the Bills dominated the first quarter, the Dolphins, led by back-up quarterback Sage Rosenfels dominated the fourth and won the game on a four-yard touchdown pass from Rosenfels to Chris Chambers with six seconds left to seal the 24-23 victory for Miami.
- The Bills started out strong and got on the board first when JP Losman connected with Lee Evans on a 46-yard touchdown pass to give the Bills a 7-0 lead. The Bills defense also made a play early when Nate Clements forced a Chris Chambers fumble which was recovered by Terrence McGee on the Dolphins first possession. Buffalo needed only one play to take advantage of the Dolphin turnover as JP Losman hit Evans from 56 yards out for his second touchdown of the game to put the Bills ahead 14-0.
- After a Dolphins punt, the Bills drove 26 yards on six plays and Losman hit Evans with his third touchdown of the day from six yards out with 2:14 left in the first quarter. With the touchdown reception, Evans became the only player in Bills history to score three touchdowns in a quarter.
- The Dolphins put themselves on the scoreboard just before halftime when Olindo Mare connected on a 23-yard field goal to make the score 21-3 Bills at the half.
- The Bills struck first in the second half when London Fletcher sacked Gus Frerotte in the end zone for a safety to give the Bills a 23-3 lead. The hit would knock Frerotte out for the game.
- Reserve quarterback Sage Rosenfels entered the game in the third quarter and led three fourth quarter scoring drives for to give the Dolphins a 24-23 victory. Ricky Williams scored from five yards out, Ronnie Brown caught a 23-yard touchdown pass from Rosenfels, and Chris Chambers sealed the victory for the Dolphins by catching a four-yard touchdown pass in the corner of the end zone with six seconds left to put the Dolphins ahead 24-23.

GAME 15: BILLS 37, Bengals 27

DECEMBER 24, 2005 – PAUL BROWN STADIUM - (65,485)

- The Bills won their first road game of the year by upsetting the heavily favored Bengals in Cincinnati. Terrence McGee was the star of the game for the Bills, as the third-year cornerback became the Bills all-time leader by returning a kickoff 99 yards for his fourth career touchdown.
- McGee also sealed the game by posting his first ever interception return for a touchdown from 46 yards out, becoming the first player in NFL history to register a kickoff return and interception return for a touchdown in the same game.
- The Bills struck first as the team scored for the tenth time this season on their first drive of the game. Kelly Holcomb started off the game by hitting Lee Evans on a 65-yard out-and-up route to the Bengals two-yard line which set up a Rian Lindell 21-yard field goal. Lindell also connected on a 24-yard field goal to give the Bills a 6-0 lead. He effectively converted an onside kick after his second field goal.
- The Bengals got on the board with a two-yard Tab Perry touchdown run, before the Bills drove 67 yards in nine plays to score on a Lee Evans three-yard touchdown reception which gave Buffalo a 13-7 lead. The Bengals answered back with a 41-yard strike from Carson Palmer to Chad Johnson just before half-time to give Cincinnati a 14-13 lead at the half.
- Shayne Graham gave the Bengals a 17-13 lead when he converted a 31-yard field goal with 4:09 left in the third quarter. Terrence McGee returned the ensuing kickoff 99-yards for a touchdown to give the Bills a 20-17 lead. McGee's 99-yard return was the seventh longest in team history a gave him a Bills all-time high four kickoff returns for a touchdown in his career.
- The Bengals answered back with a six play, 74-yard drive which was capped off by a Chris Henry 27-yard pass reception. The Bills re-took the lead 27-24 on a Kelly Holcomb one-yard touchdown run. Graham tied the game at 27 with a 27-yard field goal and after a 13 play, 66 yard drive, and Rian Lindell gave the Bills a 30-27 lead with his third field goal of the day from 22 yards out.
- With the game on the line, Terrence McGee intercepted a Carson Palmer pass and returned it 46 yards for his first career interception return for a touchdown to give the Bills a 37-27 victory.

GAME 16: Jets 30, BILLS 26

JANUARY 1, 2006 – THE MEADOWLANDS - (76,822)

- The Bills closed out the 2005 season with a 30-26 loss to an AFC East rival the New York Jets on New Year's Day 2006. Special teams had been the team's most consistent phase of the game throughout the season, however Jets second-year kick returner Justin Miller burned the unit late in the fourth quarter to produce a 95-yard touchdown run giving the Jets a four point lead. Coming into the season finale, the Bills yielded an NFL-low 18.6 yards per kick return. Miller's touchdown marked the first given up by the Bills kick coverage unit since an overtime loss to the Jets in the 2002 season opener.
- After falling behind by 11 points in the second quarter, the Bill fought back to take a three-point lead by the end of the third quarter when rookie Roscoe Parrish caught his first career touchdown on a three-yard pass from Kelly Holcomb.
- Running back Willis McGahee fueled the Bills offense with 113 yards on 22 carries to post his first 100-yard rushing game in his last eight contests. Veteran wide receiver Eric Moulds led all receivers with eight receptions for 96 yards and one touchdown. Defensive tackle Sam Adams led a spirited defensive effort with 2.0 sacks. Quarterback Kelly Holcomb made his third consecutive start and completed 23 of 37 passes for 184 yards and two touchdowns and four interceptions.
- To start the fourth quarter, Jets kicker Mike Nugent tied the game at 23 with his 34-yard field goal. The Bills answered by driving 47 yards in 10 plays as kicker Rian Lindell gave the team a three-point lead with a 36-yard field goal – his fourth field goal of the day. On the ensuing kickoff, Miller outran the Bills coverage unit for the go-ahead touchdown.
- Holcomb and the Bills took the next offensive drive down to the Jets 34-yard line. However, Jets defensive end John Abraham halted the scoring opportunity with a sack of Holcomb on a fourth-and-10 play. The Bills regained possession with 54 seconds left, but veteran cornerback Ty Law ended the dreams of a comeback with his third interception of the game.

EVERY DAY IS GAME DAY ON Buffalobills.com

The Buffalo Bills launched its newly designed version of buffalobills.com, the official website of the Buffalo Bills shortly after the NFL Draft in April. Introducing its first new design since September 2004, Buffalobills.com offers visitors expanded coverage, more content and interactive activity on the home of the most extensive Buffalo Bills information on the internet. The new design provides easier navigation throughout the site and a simpler layout allowing viewers to find information quickly and effectively.

Current Bills Digest Editor Chris Brown joins the site as its new lead journalist. Brown writes daily features and reports on the daily news at One Bills Drive in his Inside the Bills interactive daily notebook. Brown also files daily video reports following NFL Draft events, mini-camps, practices, press conferences and other major events at team headquarters. For the past 10 years, Brown has covered the Bills for a number of Buffalo-area media outlets and (most recently) serves as the pregame co-host, analyst and halftime host for the Bills Radio Network.

Visitors have the opportunity to participate interactively in Q&A sessions with team personnel, contests for special Bills-related prizes, a variety of fan polls and selection of player of the week on the Bills Backers section of the new buffalobills.com. Bills Backers is the largest registered online fan base in professional sports. With more than 60,000 fans, the Bills online community receives exclusive access to fan Q&A sessions, participation in contests for road trips and Bills merchandise and other exclusive opportunities. All fans have the opportunity to discuss all topics pertaining to the Bills on the buffalobills.com message boards.

An increased multimedia section this year is filled with video from the Bills Television Network, behind the scenes at Bills practices, and the all-new Bills Online TV, called Bills Focus. Buffalobills.com also offers live coverage of all Bills press conferences, including Dick Jaaron's weekly preview of the upcoming game.

Along with the expanded coverage and more content, Buffalobills.com remains the internet's one-stop shop for information, merchandise and tickets.

After consecutive Super Bowl appearances following the 1990 and 1991 seasons, the Bills finished 11-5 in 1992, but lost the division title to Miami on the conference-record tiebreaker. As a result, their journey back to the Super Bowl would have to begin on January 3, 1993 with a home game vs. the Houston Oilers.

The Bills got off to a slow start as the Houston offense enjoyed a 21:12 time of possession edge in the game's first 30 minutes. Houston averaged 7.3 yards per offensive play behind quarterback Warren Moon's 19 of 22 passing for 218 yards and 4 touchdowns – a 147.5 passer rating. At halftime, the Bills trailed the Oilers 28-3.

The second half start was no better. Fewer than 2 minutes into the third quarter, the Bills yielded a 58-yard interception-return touchdown and fell behind 35-3. However, with 13:15 remaining in the third quarter, the Bills embarked on the greatest comeback in NFL history, which in 1999 was chosen by fans as the Fifth Most Memorable NFL Game of the Century in voting on nfl.com.

HERE'S HOW IT HAPPENED:

- After allowing the INT-return touchdown, the Bills drove 50 yards in 10 plays on their next possession, capping the drive on a Kenneth Davis one-yard touchdown run. Houston 35, Buffalo 10.
- Bills kicker Steve Christie then recovered his own onside kick. Four plays later, Bills quarterback Frank Reich, starting for an injured Jim Kelly, connected with Don Beebe on a 38-yard touchdown. Houston 35, Buffalo 17.
- The Bills' defense produced a 3-and-out on the ensuing Houston possession and Buffalo took over on its own 41-yard line. Five plays later, Reich hit Andre Reed for a 26-yard touchdown. Houston 35, Buffalo 24.
- Two plays into the Oilers' next drive, Bills safety Henry Jones intercepted a deflected Moon pass and returned it 15 yards to the Houston 23-yard line. The Bills gained 5 yards on 3 plays and faced a fourth-and-five. Time out, Buffalo. Reich convinced Levy to go for it on fourth down. He then saw Reed break away from the safety and hit him on the goal line for 18 yards and a touchdown. Houston 35, Buffalo 31. In a span of 6 minutes and 52 seconds, the Bills had cut their deficit from 32 points to 4.
- After the teams traded punts, Moon led the Oilers on a 76-yard drive early in the fourth quarter over several-and-a-half minutes. Houston then caught a break. A Buffalo interception was wiped out by a penalty called on the Bills for a late-hit foul against Moon.
- The Oilers reached the Buffalo 14-yard line and set up for a field goal. It was then that the Bills received some help from above – it started raining. Montgomery fumbled the snap and kicker Al Del Greco recovered but the Oilers had turned the ball over on downs.
- Buffalo then drove 74 yards in seven plays into the wind, taking the lead on a 17-yard touchdown pass from Reich to Reed – the duo's third scoring connection in little more than 16 minutes. Buffalo 38, Houston 35.
- Moon then led Houston 63 yards in 12 plays, setting up the game-tying 26-yard Del Greco field goal with 12 seconds remaining.
- The game went to overtime and the Oilers won the coin flip but after two completions for 7 yards, Moon faced a third-and-3 from the Houston 27. It was then that Bills safety Nate Odomes stepped in front of a Moon pass at the 37 and returned the INT to the 35. The Bills gained 15 more yards on a penalty when Odomes was grabbed by his facemask.
- After two Davis rushes for 6 yards, Christie kicked a 32-yard field goal 3:06 into overtime. Buffalo 41, Houston 38.

In addition to keeping their Super Bowl hopes alive (the Bills would win their next two on the road to make that third consecutive appearance), Buffalo set an NFL record. Their 32-point comeback victory remains the largest in NFL history.

HISTORY

Joe DeLamielleure

GUARD

68

Inducted in 2003

▼ In the 1970s, Joe DeLamielleure and his Buffalo Bills offensive line mates were dubbed the "Electric Company," because they "turned the Juice loose." The "Juice" of course was Hall of Fame running back O.J. Simpson. An All-America and three-time All-Big Ten performer at Michigan State, "Joe D" was selected in the first round of the 1973 NFL Draft by the Bills.

Extremely durable and dependable, Joe played in 185 consecutive games during his 13 playing seasons with the Bills and the Cleveland Browns. A starter from the first game of his rookie season, DeLamielleure started in every game for eight seasons in Buffalo before being traded to Cleveland in 1980.

He went on to become the most honored lineman of the Bills respected front wall. Eight times during his career he was selected first- or second-team All-Pro; seven times he was named first- or second-team All-AFC, and six times he was named to the Pro Bowl. Since 1970, only two Hall of Fame guards, John Hannah with 10 and Gene Upshaw with seven, were named All-Pro more often.

Jim Kelly

QUARTERBACK

12

Inducted in 2001

▼ A strong-armed passer with a "linebacker's mentality," Kelly virtually rewrote the Bills' record book for quarterbacks. Only three players in NFL history had reached the 30,000-yard career passing mark faster. Eight times during his NFL career he passed for more than 3,000 yards in a season, and twenty-six times he passed for more than 300 yards in a game.

With Kelly and teammates Thurman Thomas and Andre Reed, the Bills possessed a highly potent offense during the 1990s. Kelly's quick decisiveness and fast paced "no-huddle" offense terrorized opposing defenses.

In 11 seasons in Buffalo, Kelly led the Bills to the playoffs eight times. In 17 playoff game appearances, including four consecutive Super Bowls, he passed for 3,863 yards and 21 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, his 84.4 passer rating ranked sixth all-time and was second when compared to Hall of Fame quarterbacks. His 35,467 career passing yards ranked tenth in NFL history; his 2,874 completions ranked eighth; and his 237 touchdowns ranked thirteenth.

Marv Levy

HEAD COACH

Inducted in 2001

▼ In 1986, when Marv Levy was chosen to direct the fortunes of the Buffalo Bills, he brought with him more than 30 years of coaching experience. In 1987, his first full season with the Bills, the team returned to respectability with a 7-8 record and were in the playoff hunt throughout most of the season.

The following season the team posted a 12-4 record and won the first of six AFC Eastern Division titles. With his high-powered "no-huddle" offense, Levy went on to set a new standard for NFL coaches as he led his AFC championship team to four consecutive Super Bowl appearances. From 1988 through 1997, the Bills were first in the AFC in winning percentage and second only to the San Francisco 49ers in the NFL. Levy, the winningest coach in Bills' history, recorded a 112-70 regular season record and was 11-8 in the playoffs during his 11 seasons with the Bills. He was named NFL Coach of the Year in 1988 and AFC Coach of the Year in 1988, 1993, and 1995.

James Lofton

WIDE RECEIVER

Inducted in 2003
80

▼ James Lofton's speed and soft hands made him an immediate deep-threat receiver from the moment he entered the pros in 1978.

It was something he would remain throughout his long career with Green Bay, the Los Angeles Raiders, Buffalo Bills, Los Angeles Rams, and the Philadelphia Eagles. In 16 seasons, Lofton caught 764 passes for 14,004 yards – an average of 18.3 yards per catch. His 14,004 career-reception yardage mark was an NFL best at the time of his retirement, while his 43 games with 100 or more yards receiving ranked third.

In 1987, Lofton was traded to the Raiders, and two years later joined the Bills. In Buffalo, he reemerged as one of the game's premier deep-threats. In 1991, at age 35, the still-speedy receiver became the oldest player in league history to record 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

Extremely durable, Lofton was the first NFL player to score a touchdown in the 1970s, 1980s and 1990s. Many of his 75 touchdown receptions came on long passes when he simply outran the opposition.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Billy Shaw

GUARD

66

Inducted in 1999

▼ Equally adept at pass blocking and run blocking, Billy Shaw's ability to pull out in front of runners was a perfect fit for the Bills. Shaw's speed, strength, and natural ability made him "the driving force of the offensive unit" according to his former offensive line coach Jerry Smith. Especially effective on short-yardage scoring plays, Shaw would pull out from his left guard position followed by heavy-duty runners Cookie Gilchrist and Wray Carlton. Bills quarterback Jack Kemp or his super-sub Daryle Lamonica would follow the powerful trio of blockers – often untouched – into the end zone.

A key member of the Bills teams that won AFL titles in 1964 and 1965, Shaw was named a first-team All-AFL selection five times (1962 through 1966) and also a second team All-AFL choice in 1962, 1968 and 1969. He was selected to play in eight AFL All-Star Games and was named to the All-Time AFL Team. Named to pro football's All-Decade Team of the 1960s, Shaw is the first Hall of Fame member to play his entire career in the AFL.

Inducted in 1985

▼ O. J. Simpson, a two-time All-American from the University of Southern California and the 1968 Heisman Trophy winner, was one of history's most heralded rookies when the Buffalo Bills selected him with the first overall pick in the 1969 draft.

His career record for 11 seasons confirms the rave notices were well founded. He rushed for 11,236 yards and scored 456 points on 76 touchdowns in his career. O.J. may be best remembered for his sensational 1973 season when he became the first back in history to rush for over 2,000 yards. With 219 yards in the next-to-last game against New England and a 200-yard output in the finale with the New York Jets, Simpson totaled 2,003 yards, tops for a 14-game season.

Simpson also led the league in rushing four years: 1972, 1973, 1975 and 1976.

In various selections, he was named NFL Player of the Year in 1972, 1973 and 1975. He was both All-AFC and All-Pro five straight years from 1972 through 1976. He played in six Pro Bowls, winning Player of the Game honors in the 1973 game.

- Named NFL Player of the Year in 1972, 1973 and 1975, and also named to both All-Pro and All-AFC squads from 1972-76.

BUFFALO BILLS WALL OF FAME

▼ The Buffalo Bills Wall of Fame was created in 1980 to honor former players, administrators, and coaches who have played significant roles in the team's history. To be eligible for induction, an individual must have played with the Bills for at least three years and be retired from professional football. Also eligible are other individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the Bills, including administrators and coaches. Selections are made by a distinguished panel composed of club personnel and media members.

▼ In 2006, the Bills will honor wide receiver Andre Reed by making him the newest addition to the Wall. Reed will become the 23rd member of the elite group in an event that will take place when the Bills host the Vikings on October 1, 2006.

HOW THE BILLS GOT THEIR NAME

Following the 1946 season, in an effort to generate more fan interest and distinguish the football team from the city's minor league baseball and hockey teams, which also bore the name "Bisons," the team ran a contest to select a new name. Over 4,500 entries were submitted, and "the Bills" won out over "Bullets," "Nickels" and "Blue Devils." Several contestants suggested the winning name, but James F. Dyson was named the winner of the $500 prize based on his essay comparing the team to a band of "Buffalo Bills." He wrote that, while the legendary Indian Scout William "Buffalo Bill" Cody helped trailblaze the American Frontier, the football team (owned by the president of Frontier Oil) was opening a new frontier in Buffalo sports.

AFL EASTERN DIVISION PLAYOFF

Patriots 26, BILLS 8

December 28, 1963 – War Memorial Stadium – (33,044)

Babe Parilli passed for 292 yards and a pair of TDs and Gino Cappelletti kicked 4 FGs to lead the Boston Patriots over Buffalo 26-8. The Boston defense limited the Bills to just 7 yards rushing and intercepted 4 Bills' passes to ruin Buffalo's 1st postseason playoff appearance. Buffalo had just 38 yards total offense in the 1st half as the Patriots broke to a 16-0 lead. The Bills' only scoring threat was set up by a 62-yard KO return by Elbert Dubenion, but Buffalo couldn't move and a 39-yard FG attempt fell short. In the 2nd quarter, Buffalo scored 1st on a 93-yard pass play from Daryle Lamonica to Dubenion late in the 3rd quarter, but Boston answered with a 68-yard drive capped by a Parilli pass to Larry Garron that put the game out of reach.

AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME BILLS 20, Chargers 7

December 26, 1964 – War Memorial Stadium – (40,242)

Buffalo made its first appearance in an AFL Championship Game a successful one with a 20-7 victory over San Diego. The Chargers scored first and made it look easy, driving 80 yards in just 4 plays, but the momentum quickly changed hands. On the Chargers 2nd possession, the Bills Mike Stratton crashed into San Diego RB Keith Lincoln, putting the Chargers starter out of the game, and a sense of excitement rippled through the Buffalo stands. The rest of the game belonged to the Bills. Cookie Gilchrist's 122 rushing yards complemented the varied Bills passing attack as Buffalo scored 20 unanswered points. A pair of Pete Gogolak FGs and a 4-yd. run by Wray Carlton gave Buffalo a 13-7 halftime lead and Jack Kemp's 47-yd. pass to Glenn Bass set up a Kemp sneak for a TD in the 3rd quarter that finished the scoring.

GAME NOTES

- Bills LB Mike Stratton had a standout performance recording an INT and "The Hit Heard Around the World." With 8:19 left in the first quarter, Stratton nailed San Diego RB Keith Lincoln with a hit which put Lincoln out of the game. "The Hit," which broke one of Lincoln's ribs, was considered the turning point in the game.
- Two ex-Chargers came back to haunt their former team. QB Jack Kemp, picked up off waivers from San Diego for $100, fueled the Bills offense past the Chargers. The other Charger cast off, P Paul Maguire, launched a 64-yd. punt and killed the Chargers last attempt for a comeback. Maguire's punt was the longest in Bills playoff history.

AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME BILLS 23, Chargers 0

December 26, 1965 – Balboa Stadium – (30,361)

For the second straight year, the Bills defeated the Chargers to win the AFL Championship. In 8 quarters of championship play, the Chargers managed just 7 points against Buffalo. After an uneventful 1st quarter, Jack Kemp, voted the game's MVP, hit Ernie Warlick with an 18-yard TD pass to open the scoring and 3 minutes later the Bills Butch Byrd returned a punt 74 yards for a score to put Buffalo on top 14-0. The rest of the game belonged to the Bills defense as they continually thwarted San Diego's explosive offense. Three Pete Gogolak FGs in the 2nd half added icing to the Bills championship cake.

AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 31, Bills 7

January 1, 1967 – War Memorial Stadium – (42,080)

Led by the impeccable quarterbacking of Len Dawson, the Kansas City Chiefs earned the right to play the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I by defeating Buffalo, 31-7. The Chiefs' defense forced four Buffalo turnovers and limited the Bills to nine first downs and 40 yards rushing. The Chiefs grabbed an early 7-0 lead, after Buffalo fumbled the opening kickoff. The Bills countered with a 69-yd. bomb from Jack Kemp to Elbert Dubenion to tie the game. Dawson hit Otis Taylor with a 29-yd. TD pass in the 2nd quarter to put the Chiefs on top, but Kemp moved Buffalo into scoring position near the end of the half. A Johnny Robinson INT and long return set up Mike Mercer's 32-yd. FG with three seconds left in the half and Kansas City had the momentum. Buffalo never penetrated the Chief's 40-yd. line in the 2nd half while Kansas City added a pair of scores by Mike Garrett to turn the game into a rout.

- Buffalo's loss to the Chiefs left the team one game short of becoming the first AFL team to win three straight championships.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Steelers 32, Bills 14

December 22, 1974 – Three Rivers Stadium – (48,321)

A 4-TD explosion in the 2nd quarter propelled Pittsburgh to a 32-14 win over the Bills, spoiling Buffalo's 1st postseason appearance in 8 years. The Bills moved out to an early 7-3 lead on a 22-yard TD pass from Joe Ferguson to Paul Seymour. But Terry Bradshaw ran the Steeler offense to perfection in the 2nd quarter, completing 7 of 8 passes for 143 yards and repeatedly hurting Buffalo with scrambling gains. Rocky Bleier began the Pittsburgh scoring avalanche with a 27-yard TD reception and Franco Harris scored 3 times from inside the 5-yard line as the Steelers moved out to an insurmountable 29-7 lead. In the 2nd half, Buffalo's comeback hopes were stymied by the tough Pittsburgh defense and a stubborn ball control offense that kept the ball away from the Bills.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF BILLS 14, Chargers 20

January 3, 1981 — San Diego Stadium — (48, 321)

In dramatic fashion, San Diego rallied from a 14-3 deficit as QB Dan Fouts connected with WR Ron Smith on a 50-yd. scoring pass with just 2:08 remaining in the game. The reception was only the 5th of the season for Smith. Playing courageously on a badly sprained left ankle, QB Joe Ferguson tried to direct a last ditch bid by the Bills. His efforts were thwarted, however, when a pass was picked off by a San Diego defender after Buffalo had reached midfield. Meeting for the 2nd time at San Diego within a 3-month span, the teams battled on even terms until the Chargers got a late 1st quarter FG. Then the Bills took command with two 2nd period scores. The 1st came on a 1-yd. burst up the middle by Roosevelt Leaks. With only 16 seconds remaining in the half, Ferguson connected with WR Frank Lewis on a 9-yd. scoring play, upping the Bills margin to 14-3. San Diego countered with a 3rd quarter TD and 4th period FG before the late heroics by Fouts and Smith.

AFC WILD CARD GAME BILLS 31, Jets 27

December 27, 1981 – Shea Stadium – (57,050)

In a Wild Card game that lived up to its name, the Buffalo Bills stormed to a 24-0 lead but needed a last-second INT by Bill Simpson to preserve their 1st postseason victory since 1965. Charles Romeos got the visitors off and winning by picking up Bruce Harper's fumble on the opening KO and returned it 26 yards for a TD. The play took 16 seconds and was the 2nd fastest score in NFL playoff history. TD passes of 50 and 26 yards to Frank Lewis, were sandwiched around a 29-yd. Nick Mick-Mayer FG to put the Bills up by 24-0. The Jets hung up 10 points before halftime and trailed 24-13 after Pat Leahy's 19-yard FG in the 3rd quarter. Joe Cribbs, staked the Bills to a 31-13 lead with his 45-yard scoring run 5 minutes deep into the final period. The Jets, however, refused to die. Richard Todd moved them 80 yards in 8 plays, hitting Bobby Jones with a 30-yard TD toss. After Buffalo failed to move on their next possession, Todd got the Jets within four with the aid of an interference call against Mario Clark that wiped out an apparent INT, in a 58-yard march that ended on a 1-yard plunge by Kevin Long. Buffalo could not generate a 1st down and turned the ball back to New York at the Jets' 20 with 2:36 remaining. Todd passed the Jets downfield, reaching the Buffalo 11 with just 10 seconds to play. Simpson stepped in front of his 2nd-and-10 try for Derrick Gaffney in the end zone to intercept at the Buffalo one to seal the Jets doom.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Bengals 28, Bills 21

January 3, 1982 – Riverfront Stadium – (55,420)

Cincinnati jumped out to a 14-0 1st quarter lead, after cashing in on a long punt return and an INT, and defeated Buffalo 28-21, to secure the 1st postseason victory in the history of the Bengals franchise. The Bengals Mike Fuller returned a Greg Cater punt 27 yards to start Cincinnati's 1st possession at the Buffalo 42. Charles Alexander capped a 7-play drive with his 4-yd. scoring run. After Ken Riley intercepted a Joe Ferguson pass, the Bengals marched 48 yards in 8 plays and took a 14-0 advantage on Pete Johnson's 1-yd. run. Buffalo breathed new life before halftime, as Ferguson hit Jerry Butler with a 54-yd. pass to draw within 14-7 on Joe Cribbs' 1-yard run. Early in the 3rd quarter, the Bills evened the issue on a 44-yd. scoring run by Cribbs, a play that would later prove costly as the Buffalo rushing leader injured a knee and played only one more down before retiring for the afternoon. The teams traded TDs, Cincinnati scoring on a 20-yard run by Alexander and Buffalo on a 21-yd. pass from Ferguson to Butler, to make it 21-21 after 1 play of the 4th quarter. Bengal QB Ken Anderson put Cincinnati back in the driver's seat, 28-21, on a 16-yd. scoring pass to Cris Collinsworth. Buffalo's last grasp reached the Bengal 20 late in the final stanza but a controversial delay-of-game penalty wiped out an apparent 3rd down conversion pass to Lou Piccone and Ferguson overthrew Roland Hooks in the end zone on 4th down.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF BILLS 17, Oilers 10

January 1, 1989 – Rich Stadium – (79,532)

Spurred on by 79,532 noisy fans, the Bills blocked a Houston punt and field goal, and forced a fumble on another punt late in the series, to advance to the AFC Championship game. Following Leonard Smith's block of a Greg Montgomery punt, the Bills scored on Robb Riddick's one-yard TD run. The Oilers answered with a 35-yard Tony Zendejas FG, following an 11-play, 71-yard drive to make the score 7-3 at the intermission. The Bills defense stymied Houston in the 3rd quarter as Oilers QB Warren Moon was unable to complete a pass in the period. Thurman Thomas, who earlier had a career-best 40-yard run, scored from 11 yards out following a 59-yard drive to give the Bills a 14-3 lead after 3 quarters. Scott Norwood nailed a 27-yard FG after Mark Kelso picked off a Moon pass and returned it 28 yards to put the Bills at the Houston 18. Mike Rozier capped an 80-yard Houston drive with a 1-yd. scoring plunge with 5:12 remaining in the game. The Oilers forced Buffalo to punt with just under two minutes remaining, but Steve Tasker stripped the ball away from Curtis Duncan and Ray Bentley recovered at the Houston 18 allowing Buffalo to run out the clock and win the game.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Bengals 21, Bills 10

January 8, 1989 – Riverfront Stadium – (59,747)

The Bills season ended in Riverfront Stadium as Cincinnati dominated the Bills, 21-10, before a boisterous crowd. The Bills offense sputtered throughout the game, spent most of the second half pinned against its own goal line and failed to convert on any 3rd down opportunities in the game. Cincinnati scored first on a 1-yd. TD run by Ickey Woods, following an Eric Thomas INT of a Jim Kelly pass. Buffalo answered quickly, as Kelly connected on all 4 of his passes in the following drive, finishing with a 9-yd. scoring strike to Andre Reed and tying the game at 7-7. The Bills forced Cincinnati to punt and drove to the Bengals 26-yd. line, but Scott Norwood's 43-yard FG attempt sailed wide left. The Bengals took advantage of the break and scored on a Boomer Esiason 10-yd. TD pass to James Brooks. The Bills pulled to within 4 at the half as Norwood connected on a 39-yd. FG, following a 25-yd. INT return by Mark Kelso. The second half belonged to Cincinnati as it held Buffalo to 2 first downs and forced the Bills to start all 5 of its drives inside the 23-yd. line. The Bengals took advantage of a personal foul against Bills' DB Derrick Burroughs to set up Woods' second 1-yd. TD. Buffalo launched one last drive, but it ended when David Fulcher picked off a 4th-down pass from Kelly in the end zone.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Browns 34, Bills 30

January 6, 1990 – Cleveland Stadium – (77,706)

LB Clay Matthews intercepted a QB Jim Kelly 11-yard pass on the 1-yard line with 9 seconds left in the game to preserve the victory for the Browns. In dramatic style, Buffalo began a comeback bid after K Matt Bahr kicked a 47-yd. FG to give Cleveland a 34-24 lead with 6:50 left in the fourth quarter. Kelly began a string of 23 consecutive pass plays and closed the gap to 4 when he hit RB Thurman Thomas for a 3-yd. TD. Buffalo opened the scoring when WR Andre Reed split the secondary for a 72-yd. TD pass in the first quarter. A 45-yd. Bahr FG coupled with a 52-yard WR Webster Slaughter bomb gave Cleveland the lead at 10-7. The Bills returned the favor when WR James Lofton hauled in a Kelly pass for a 33-yard TD. TE Ron Middleton gave Cleveland the halftime lead on a 3-yd. pass from QB Bernie Kosar. Slaughter scored again on a 44-yard toss from Kosar to extend the Browns lead to 24-14 early on the third quarter. Thomas continued the seesaw battle with the first of his two TD receptions from Kelly on a 6-yard strike. But the Browns struck back quickly when KR Eric Metcalf took the ensuing kickoff 90 yards for the score. K Scott Norwood got the Bills within seven when he made a 30-yd. attempt early in the final period.

GAME NOTES

■ QB Jim Kelly set a personal playoff high of 405 yards passing against the Browns. The Bills QB also set a new record for TD passes with 4 (old record - 2 by Joe Ferguson, twice).

■ RB Thurman Thomas' 13 receptions tied an NFL record for catches in a playoff game. The record was set by San Diego TE Kellen Winslow in 1981 vs. Miami.

■ WR Andre Reed (115 yds. receiving) and RB Thurman Thomas (150 yds. receiving) became the first two Bills players to record 100-yard receiving performances in the same playoff game.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF BILLS 44, Dolphins 34

January 12, 1991 – Rich Stadium – (77,087)

Buffalo and Miami combined for a regulation-time NFL playoff record 78 points in a game dictated by inclement weather. QB Jim Kelly ran the no-huddle offense to a 13-3 first quarter lead in his first appearance since suffering a knee injury against the Giants on 12/15/90. Kelly hit WR Andre Reed on a 40-yd. strike before Miami answered with a 49-yd. Pete Stoyanovich FG. The next two Buffalo drives were capped off with FGs of 24 and 22 yards by K Scott Norwood. Buffalo and Miami then traded TDs in the second quarter snowfall when the Bills started the see-saw with a 5-yd. TD scamper by RB Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, QB Dan Marino connected on a 64-yd. TD aerial to WR Mark Duper. But Kelly answered with a 13-yd. TD pass to WR James Lofton. Miami then got a break when P Reggie Roby recovered a fumble at the Bills 47 and 7 plays later. Marino bootlegged in from 2 yards. In a 3rd quarter kickers' dual, Stoyanovich split the uprights from 22 yards out before Norwood drew claim to his 3rd FG of the day with a 28-yd. shot. Miami drew to within a FG, 30-27, when Marino hit guard eligible Roy Foster with a 2-yd. TD pass. But the Bills added 14 points to their 4th quarter lead when Thomas put the finishing touch on a 63-yd. drive by strolling in from the 5. Buffalo wasted no time getting the ball back when LB Hal Garner forced a fumble on the ensuing KO return. Just 2 plays later, Reed grabbed a 23-yd. Kelly pass for the Bills final tally. The Dolphins made the final score 44-34 with an 8-yd. Marino-to-WR Tony Martin TD pass.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME BILLS 51, Raiders 3

January 20, 1991 – Rich Stadium – (80,324)

The Bills won their first AFC Championship with one of the most dominating performances ever displayed in a title game. Buffalo set the tone for the day by driving 75 yards after the opening KO and scored the initial TD when QB Jim Kelly picked up a bad shotgun snap and scrambled to find WR James Lofton for a 13-yard pass. After Raiders K Jeff Jaeger cut the lead to 7-3, the Buffalo onslaught began. RB Thurman Thomas ran for a 12-yd. TD before LB Darryl Talley returned an INT 27 yards to extend the early lead to 21-3. The Bills no-huddle offense showcased its power by scoring 20 more points in the 2nd quarter on 2 TD runs by RB Kenneth Davis and an 8-yd. TD pass from Kelly to Lofton. Buffalo posted an impressive 41-3 halftime advantage, establishing an NFL postseason record for most points in a first half. Davis added his 3rd TD in the 4th quarter, tying an NFL playoff record for the most TDs in a game, while K Scott Norwood hit a 39-yard FG to provide the final margin. Thomas rushed for a Bills playoff record 138 yards as Buffalo gained a total of 502 yards compared to LA's 320.

GAME NOTES

- Buffalo recorded their most points in a playoff game and their largest margin of victory in club history by defeating the Raiders 51-3 (+48 pts.), breaking the old AFL/AFC Championship record held by San Diego (41 pts., 1/5/63).
- Buffalo's 6 INTs against the Raiders equaled the third-highest single-game total in NFL postseason history. LB Darryl Talley led the way with 2 INTs. Also, FS Mark Kelso, with his 1 INT, upped his career postseason total to 4, and became the Bills all-time leading playoff interceptor.
- QB Jim Kelly set a new AFC Championship Game completion percentage record of 73.9% (old record - 70.8 by Jim Plunkett, 1983). The game also marked the third straight postseason contest in which Kelly had thrown for over 300 yards.

SUPER BOWL XXV Giants 20, Bills 19

January 27, 1991 – Tampa Stadium – (73,813)

The Bills and Giants made the Silver Anniversary Super Bowl a historic one as the Giants narrowly edged the Bills, 20-19, in a battle later dubbed, "A Game for the Ages." Buffalo loyalists watched their hopes of a world championship sail wide right as K Scott Norwood's 47-yd. FG attempt just missed its mark with only 4 seconds remaining. The Giants opened the evening's scoring on a 28-yard FG by K Matt Bahr before Buffalo answered with a 23-yarder by Norwood. The AFC Champions took their first lead of the game, 10-3, when RB Don Smith smashed in from the one. DE Bruce Smith then extended the lead by recording a rare Super Bowl safety when he sacked Giants QB Jeff Hostetler in the end zone. After holding the Buffalo offense 2 consecutive series, the Giants regained momentum on an 87-yd. drive that ended with a 14-yd. TD strike from Hostetler to WR Stephen Baker just before the half ended. After receiving the 2nd half KO, the NFC Champions utilized their ball control offense and kept the Bills defense on the field for over 9 minutes on their way to a 76-yard scoring drive that culminated with RB Ottis Anderson bullying his way into the end zone from the one. New York took a 17-12 lead, but the NFL's number one scoring machine struck back quickly behind the running of Thurman Thomas, who broke a number of tackles en route to a 31-yd. TD scamper. On the next possession, Giants K Matt Bahr split the uprights from 21 yards out with, what proved to be, the final score of the game. After the Bills defense forced the Giants to punt one last time, QB Jim Kelly and the offense started the final drive on their own 10-yard line with 2:16 left on the clock. Eight plays, 61 yards and 2:08 later, the Bills FG unit became the focus of attention for football fans around the world.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BILLS 37, Chiefs 14

January 5, 1992 – Rich Stadium – (80,182)

Buffalo advanced to its second consecutive AFC Championship Game with a convincing, 37-14, win over the Kansas City Chiefs. Buffalo moved out to a 17-0 lead on the strength of two QB Jim Kelly-to-WR Andre Reed TD strikes and a K Scott Norwood 33-yd. FG. The Bills extended their lead early in the second half when WR James Lofton hauled in a 10-yd. pass from Kelly to set the score at 24-0. The Chiefs finally got on the scoreboard late in the third quarter as a LB Lonnie Marts interception set up a drive, which ended with a 3-yd. TD run by RB Barry Word. Buffalo put the game out of reach in the fourth quarter with two Norwood field goals and a 5-yd. TD run by RB Kenneth Davis. WR Fred Jones grabbed a 20-yd. pass from QB Mark Vlasic to set the final score at 37-14. In the game, Kelly threw for 3 TDs and 3 INTs, while Mark Vlasic was intercepted 4 times in relief of an injured Steve DeBerg.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

BILLS 10, Broncos 7

January 12, 1992 – Rich Stadium – (80,272)

Led by a stingy defense, Buffalo returned to its second consecutive Super Bowl with a hard fought 10-7 win over the Denver Broncos. With the Buffalo offense in a dog-fight of their own, the Buffalo defense took the game into their own hands and registered the only Buffalo TD of the game. On 2nd down, deep in Denver territory, QB John Elway backed up to attempt a screen pass, reading the play, NT Jeff Wright ceased his charge and deflected the pass into the air. LB Carlton Bailey alertly grabbed the ball and returned it 11 yards for the game's first score. Buffalo moved out to a 10-0 lead after K Scott Norwood hit a 44-yd. field goal mid-way through the fourth quarter. Denver then took control of the ball and marched 85 yards in 8 plays for a score, a 3-yard QB draw by Gary Kubiak. The Denver back-up quarterback took over after Elway left the game in the third quarter with a thigh bruise. The Broncos then recovered the ensuing onside kick, but on the next play from scrimmage, CB Kirby Jackson stripped RB Steve Sewell of the ball and scooped it up to halt the Denver comeback. On the day, Denver K David Treadwell missed three FGs, a 47-yarder wide left and two attempts, 42 and 37, both which hit the right upright.

SUPER BOWL XXVI

Redskins 37, Bills 24

January 26, 1992 – HHH Metrodome – (63,130)

Buffalo's hopes for a world championship were dashed for the second consecutive season with a 37-24 loss to the Washington Redskins. The red-hot Redskins dominated the Bills throughout the contest and built a 17-0 halftime lead. Washington then extended its lead to 24-0 on only the second play of the third quarter with a 2-yard run by Gerald Riggs. The score was set up by LB Kurt Gouveia's INT and return to the Buffalo 2-yard line. The Bills then mounted a comeback with a 21-yd. field goal by K Scott Norwood and a 1-yd. TD run by RB Thurman Thomas, but Washington put all of Buffalo's momentum aside by capturing the next three scores. Buffalo added two late TDs to set the final score at 37-24.

AFC WILD CARD GAME

BILLS 41, Oilers 38 (OT)

January 3, 1993 - Rich Stadium - (75,141)

Buffalo scored four TDs in under seven minutes in the third quarter, and rallied from a 35-3 deficit to down the Oilers 41-38, marking the greatest comeback in NFL history. Houston jumped out to a 28-3 halftime lead on four QB Warren Moon TD passes. Moon, who played a virtually flawless half, completed 19 of 22 passes for 218 yards and 0 INTs. Buffalo's lone points of the half came on a first quarter K Steve Christie 36-yd. FG. Houston made it 35-3 on the Bills' opening drive of the second half when SS Bubba McDowell intercepted a QB Frank Reich pass and raced 58 yards for the score. The Bills' amazing comeback began when RB Kenneth Davis scored from one yard out, and Christie recovered the ensuing onside kick at the Buffalo 48. Four plays later, Reich found WR Don Beebe on a 38-yd. TD pass. The Bills' scoring flurry continued on their next possession when Reich hit WR Andre Reed with a 26-yd. TD pass to pull Buffalo within 11, 35-24. On the first play of Houston's next possession, S Henry Jones picked off a Moon pass and returned it 15 yards to the Houston 23. On a 4th and 5 play from the 18 yard line, Reich found Reed once again in the endzone to make the score 35-31, Houston. The Bills took their first lead when Reich connected with Reed for the third time, this time from 17 yards out, to put Buffalo on top 38-35 with 3:08 left in regulation play. After a 12-play, 63-yd. drive, Del Greco hit a 26-yd. FG to send the contest into OT. After winning the toss, Houston gave the ball back to the Bills when DB Nate Odomes picked off a Moon pass. Three plays later, Christie kicked the 32-yd. game winner to give Buffalo the dramatic 41-38 victory, sending the team to the second round of the AFC Playoffs.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BILLS 24, Pittsburgh 3

January 9, 1993 – Three Rivers Stadium – (60,407)

Buffalo took advantage of three Pittsburgh turnovers, and sacked QB Neil O'Donnell seven times en route to a 24-3 victory, earning the Bills their third consecutive trip to the AFC Championship Game. Pittsburgh's only points came on its first possession when K Gary Anderson connected on a 38-yd. FG. Buffalo set the halftime score at 7-3 when QB Frank Reich hit OL Mitch Frerotte out of the backfield on a one-yd. TD pass. The score was set up when DE Bruce Smith sacked O'Donnell, forcing a fumble which was recovered by DE Phil Hansen on the Buffalo 41. On the Bills first possession of the half, Buffalo marched 80 yards in 13 plays, capped off by a 17-yard scoring strike from Reich to WR James Lofton to make the score 14-3, Buffalo. After a botched FG attempt by Pittsburgh, Buffalo drove 44-yards, setting up a K Steve Christie 43-yard FG. The Bills put the game away on their next possession, putting together an 86-yd. drive that ended with a FB Carwell Gardner one-yard run to set the final score, 24-3. RB Kenneth Davis rushed 10 times for 107 yards, while WR Don Beebe grabbed seven passes for 72 yards to compliment Reich's 16-23 passing performance. LB Darryl Talley recorded seven tackles and a sack, and NT Jeff Wright and DE Keith Willis had two sacks a piece to lead the Buffalo defensive effort.

- Kenneth Davis' 10.4 average made him the first Buffalo RB to average better than 10 yards per carry in a post-season affair (minimum 10 carries).

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

BILLS 29, Dolphins 10

January 17, 1993 – Joe Robbie Stadium – (72,703)

Bills' K Steve Christie connected on five FGs, and QB Jim Kelly returned to the lineup to lead Buffalo to a 29-10 victory over Miami, and a berth in a third straight Super Bowl. The Bills got on the board first on a Christie 21-yd. FG. The score was set up when DE Bruce Smith sacked Miami QB Dan Marino, forcing a fumble which LB Darryl Talley recovered. Dolphins' K Pete Stoyanovich knotted the score at 3-3 with a 51-yd. FG to close out the first quarter scoring. Buffalo came right back, driving 64 yards on seven plays, capped off by a 17-yard TD pass from Kelly to RB Thurman Thomas. On the Dolphins next possession, Bills DE Phil Hansen intercepted Marino on the Miami 24-yd. line, setting up a 33-yard Christie FG to give the Bills a 13-3 halftime lead. On the second half kickoff, Buffalo DE Mark Pike stripped the ball from Mike Williams, and FB Carwell Gardner recovered on the Miami 24. Five plays later, RB Kenneth Davis scored on a two-yard run to put Buffalo on top, 20-3. Christie added another FG in the third quarter, and two more in the fourth to tie an NFL playoff record. Miami's only points of the half came on a 15-yd. TD pass from Marino to WR Mark Duper. Kelly completed 17 of 24 passes for 177 yards and a TD, including a perfect seven of seven in the second half. RBs Thurman Thomas and Kenneth Davis combined for 157 rushing yards and 122 yards receiving as the Bills rolled to their third consecutive AFC Championship.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

SUPER BOWL XXVII Cowboys 52, Bills 17

January 31, 1993 – Rose Bowl – (98,374)

Buffalo led 7-0, on a 2-yd. TD run by RB Thurman Thomas five minutes into the game, until the first two of their record nine turnovers helped the Cowboys take the lead for good late in the opening quarter. First, Dallas S James Washington intercepted a Jim Kelly pass and returned it 13 yards to the Bills 47, setting up QB Troy Aikman's 2-yd. TD pass to TE Jay Novacek with 1:36 remaining in the period. On the next play from scrimmage, Kelly was sacked by Charles Haley and fumbled at the Bills two-yard line where the Cowboys' Jimmie Jones picked up the loose ball and ran two yards for a TD. Dallas, which recovered five fumbles and intercepted four passes, struck just as quickly late in the first half, when Aikman tossed 19- and 18-yard TD passes to Michael Irvin 15 seconds apart to give the Cowboys a 28-10 lead at intermission. Buffalo scored for the last time when backup QB Frank Reich, playing because Kelly was injured while attempting to pass midway through the second quarter, threw a 40-yard TD pass to Don Beebe on the final play of the third period to trim the deficit to 31-17. But Dallas put the game out of reach by scoring three times in a span of 2:33 of the fourth quarter. In one of the most memorable plays in Super Bowl lore, Cowboys DL Leon Lett returned a Reich fumble 64 yards to the Buffalo one-foot line before Beebe, who raced the length of the field, knocked the ball from his hand.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF BILLS 29, Raiders 23

January 15, 1994 – Rich Stadium – (61,923)

The Bills trailed, 17-6, late in the first half and, 23-22, late in the third quarter before QB Jim Kelly capped perhaps the most brilliant performance of his career with a 22-yd. TD pass to WR Bill Brooks, his second of the game for the winning points 2:55 into the fourth quarter. The Bills overcame the losses of their leading receiver and best run-blocker, TE Pete Metzelaars, who left the game late in the third quarter with a dislocated finger, and RB Thurman Thomas, who left early in the fourth with a mild concussion. After a scoreless first quarter, the Raiders struck first with a K Jeff Jaeger 30-yd. FG. Each team traded a pair of rushing TDs as Bills RB Kenneth Davis plunged in from 1 yard out and Thomas scored on an 8-yd. run. Raiders RB Napoleon McCallum added two 1-yd. TD runs in between Buffalo's two scores to give them a 17-13 lead at the intermission. Buffalo's defense was as effective as its offense in the final two quarters, as the Bills took control of the game in the second half by outscoring the Raiders, 16-6, and picking up 18 first downs to L.A.'s one, which came on a touchdown.

GAME NOTES

- The two TDs by Bill Brooks were the first of his career in the postseason.
- Bills improved to 7-0 at Rich Stadium in postseason play.
- The 30 points scored in the second quarter (LA 17, Buffalo 13) established a new Buffalo record for that stanza. The old record, 28 (Buffalo 14, Miami 14), was established 1/12/91 in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME BILLS 30, Chiefs 13

January 23, 1994 – Rich Stadium – (76,642)

The Buffalo Bills made history by becoming the only team ever to reach four consecutive Super Bowls with a solid, 30-13, victory over the Chiefs in the AFC Championship game. RB Thurman Thomas set a franchise record with 189 rushing yards on 33 carries and a club-record three TDs. After the teams traded punts twice, the Bills finally got on the board midway through the first quarter with Thomas' 12-yard TD up the middle. Chiefs QB Joe Montana then led the Chiefs on a 10-play, 51-yd. drive all the way to the Buffalo 13. The Chiefs, however, had to settle for a 31-yard FG. The Chiefs added a second 31-yd. FG less than two minutes later after Bills KR Russell Copeland fumbled the ensuing kickoff. Thomas' second TD and two K Steve Christie FGs helped stake the Bills to a 20-6 halftime lead. RB Marcus Allen brought the Chiefs to within a touchdown late in the third quarter with a 1-yard TD run, but Christie and Thomas combined for another 10 points to close the scoring at 30-13 and send the Bills to Atlanta.

SUPER BOWL XXVIII

Cowboys 30, Bills 13

January 30, 1994 - Georgia Dome - (72,817)

KR Kevin Williams returned the opening kickoff 50 yards, however, Dallas had to settle with a 41-yd. K Eddie Murray FG. Buffalo kicker Steve Christie tied the game less than three minutes later with a Super Bowl record 54-yd. FG. On the Bills' first play of their next possession, RB Thurman Thomas fumbled a shovel pass from QB Jim Kelly at midfield. Once again, but the Cowboys had to settle for a FG. The Bills then responded with a 17-play, 80-yd. drive that ended with a 4-yd. TD run by Thomas to go ahead, 10-6. The drive had come to a halt when the Bills had a fourth-and-three, however, Dallas was penalized five yards for running into P Chris Mohr. CB Nate Odomes intercepted a QB Troy Aikman pass with a little over a minute remaining in the first half, and the Bills took advantage by converting on another Christie FG as time expired, giving Buffalo a 13-6 halftime lead. Less than a minute into the third quarter, momentum swung in the Cowboys' direction when Thomas fumbled and reserve safety James Washington returned the ball 46 yards for a TD, tying the game at 13. Buffalo's offense was shut down for the remainder of the contest, while game MVP RB Emmitt Smith ran for two TDs, a 15-yarder in the third quarter and a 1-yd. plunge in the fourth, to put the game away. Murray added a late FG to close out the scoring, 30-13, and earn the Cowboys their second-straight Super Bowl victory over Buffalo.

AFC WILD CARD GAME

BILLS 37, Dolphins 22

December 30, 1995 - Rich Stadium - (73,103)

The Bills improved to 9-0 at Rich Stadium in the postseason with their impressive 37-22 victory over their AFC East foe the Miami Dolphins in the first round of the AFC playoffs. The Bills jumped out to an early 7-0 lead on a seven play, 58-yd. drive that resulted in a one-yr. TD run by RB Thurman Thomas, who ran his consecutive postseason TD streak to six games. Buffalo would never look back as they forced Miami into three downs and out before K Steve Christie added his first of three FGs to make the score 10-0. The Bills defense stepped up at the start of the second quarter when Miami attempted a fourth-and-seven play from the Buffalo 32-yd. line and were stopped. The Bills took over on downs and needed only four plays to march down the field for the score on RB Darick Holmes' 21-yard run into the end zone. The score was set up by a vintage 32-yard burst by RB Thurman Thomas to the Dolphins 21-yard line. Thomas, who had his sixth career 100-yard rushing postseason game, would finish the day with 158 yards on 25 carries and the Bills 341 rushing yards would be the second highest total in NFL postseason history. Buffalo crossed the goal line again on their next possession when QB Jim Kelly's perfect 37-yard touch pass fell into the arms of WR Steve Tasker in the end zone to make the score 24-0 at halftime. Tasker would finish the first half with 108 yards receiving, the first 100-yard receiving game of his career. The scoring drive was set up by LB Marlo Perry's first career interception at the Bills 38. Buffalo added three more points to their lead late in the third quarter when Christie added a 23-yd. FG to push the lead to 27-0. Miami finally got on the board on their first possession of the fourth quarter when QB Dan Marino hit WR QJ McDuffie on a five-yd. TD pass. The Bills punched in their final TD of the afternoon on RB Tim Tindale's career-long 44-yd. burst off the left side for the score. The Dolphins rebounded with another score before Christie added a 44-yard FG, the team's final points of the day. The Dolphins added one final TD late in the game to provide for the final margin of victory, 37-22.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

Steelers 40, Bills 21

January 6, 1996 – Three Rivers Stadium – (59,072)

The Bills Super Bowl dream came to a close on the frozen surface of Three Rivers Stadium with a 40-21 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers in the second round of the AFC playoffs. The Bills, playing without DE Bruce Smith who remained in Buffalo with the flu, quickly found themselves trailing 20-0 with under five minutes to play in the first half. Instead of packing it in, the Bills persevered and kept the game close by adding a one-yard RB Thurman Thomas TD plunge with under a minute remaining in the first half to close the gap to 20-7. For Thomas it was his seventh consecutive postseason game with a TD, second longest streak in NFL history. The Steelers quickly regrouped to add a FG which made the score 23-7 at halftime. Pittsburgh added another three-pointer at the start of the third quarter before the Bills offense would get jump-started by a 40-yd. run on a reverse by WR Steve Tasker. Two plays later backup QB Alex Van Pelt, in for a shaken QB Jim Kelly, hit TE Tony Cline on a two-yard TD pass to close the gap to 26-14. It was Cline's first-career touchdown. On their first possession of the final stanza the Bills drove 36 yards in six plays which was capped off by a nine yd. pass from Kelly, who returned in the middle of the drive, to Thomas to make the score 26-21. For Thomas, it was his 18th postseason TD, making him the NFL's career postseason TD leader at the time. Pittsburgh took their ensuing possession and held onto the ball for 5:07 in driving 76 yards for the game-clinching TD to make the score 33-21. The Steelers added one more score with under two minutes to play to provide the final margin, 40-21.

AFC WILD CARD GAME

Jaguars 30, Bills 27

December 28, 1996 – Rich Stadium – (70,213)

Buffalo dropped its first playoff game ever at Rich Stadium with a 30-27 defeat to the Jacksonville Jaguars. The Bills got off to a quick start when Jim Jeffcoat nearly sacked Mark Brunell for a safety, resulting in an intentional grounding penalty and subsequent punt from the back of the endzone. With Thurman Thomas getting the call on five consecutive plays, the Bills capped a six-play, 43-yd. drive with Jim Kelly's seven-yard pass to a wide-open Thomas in the right flat. The TD was Thomas' 19th in the playoffs, establishing a new NFL postseason record. Midway through the first quarter Jacksonville's Clyde Simmons intercepted a Kelly shovel pass and raced 20 yards to even the score at 7-7. The Bills reclaimed the lead on their next possession when they marched 68 yards in 10 plays, the score coming when Thomas went over the right side from two yards out. Thomas' second score of the game made him the NFL's leading scorer in postseason history with 120 points (a record Emmitt Smith tied later in the afternoon), eclipsing the old mark of 115 points held by George Blanda. Jacksonville closed the first quarter's scoring at 14-10 when Mike Hollis connected from 27 yards out. Neither team scored again until Natrone Means rumbled 30 yards for his lone score of the game with under 4:00 to play in the half. Buffalo answered once again to tie the score at 17 when Steve Christie kicked a 33-yarder at the two minute mark. Christie opened the third quarter scoring on the Bills' initial drive with his second FG of the day, this one from 47 yards out. After the Jaguars knotted the score at 20 apiece on Hollis' 24-yard FG, Jeff Burris intercepted a pass that was tipped by David White and went 38 yards for Buffalo's final points of the game. Jacksonville evened the game on a Brunell-to-Jimmy Smith two-yd. scoring pass and regained possession when they recovered a fumble at their own 42-yd. line. Hollis' 45-yd FG bounced off the right upright before going through, giving Jacksonville a 30-27 lead with just over 3:00 remaining. Todd Collins replaced a shaken up Jim Kelly, but was unable to muster a comeback for the Bills.

GAME NOTES

■ Thurman Thomas' 12 points moved him past George Blanda, making him the NFL's all-time leading scorer in the postseason with 120 points. His 74 combined yards from scrimmage increased his career postseason yards from scrimmage to 2,078, passing Franco Harris as the all-time postseason leader.

■ Jim Kelly's 32 pass attempts moved him ahead of Dan Marino into second place behind Joe Montana in all-time postseason passing attempts with 545. His 239 yards helped move him past Terry Bradshaw into second place behind Joe Montana on the all-time postseason passing yards list, with 3,863.

■ Steve Christie's two field goals increased his career postseason percentage to 87.0%, second best in history behind Chuck Nelson's 90.9%.

AFC WILD CARD GAME

Dolphins 24, Bills 17

January 2, 1999 – Pro Player Stadium – (72,698)

The Dolphins earned the right to host the first-round playoff game thanks to a 6-point edge in net points in divisional games, the NFL's 5th tie-breaker. As it turned out, the game itself was just as tight and was not decided until the Bills turned it over after advancing to the Miami 5-yd. line with 9 seconds to play. The contest not only ended in thrilling fashion but also began that way. On the game's first play, Doug Flutie hooked up with Eric Moulds on a 65-yard pass but Moulds fumbled at the end of the play, giving it to the Dolphins at their 29. From there, Miami advanced to Buffalo's 14 before Olindo Mare's 31-yd. FG gave the Dolphins the early lead. They extended it to 6-0 on their next series with another Mare FG. The Bills came back quickly as a 37-yard Flutie-to-Moulds pass set-up a 1-yard Thurman Thomas TD run to put Buffalo up 7-6. Just before halftime, Buffalo reached the Miami 6 but a Flutie INT halted that drive. Midway through the 3rd, Miami went back on top on a 3-yard Karim Abdul-Jabbar TD run and successful 2-point try. The Bills answered on their next drive and tied the score at 14 on a 32-yard scoring pass from Flutie to Moulds. After leading the AFC in receiving yards during the regular season, Moulds further established himself as one of the NFL's premier receivers and would finish the afternoon with an NFL playoff record 240 yards on 9 catches. Miami's next two drives resulted in scores: a 23-yd. Mare FG and an 11-yard TD pass from Dan Marino to Lamar Thomas – and the Bills found themselves trailing by 10 with just 3:42 remaining. Buffalo advanced to the Miami 10 by the 2:00 warning when Andre Reed seemingly scored on a pass from Flutie. Officials however ruled Reed down at the 1 and then ejected him for protesting the call. Thanks to the penalty, the Bills were forced to settle for a 33-yd. Steve Christie FG and hope for an onside kick recovery. Hope was alive when Kurt Schulz recovered the kick, giving the Bills the ball back at their own 31 with 1:30 left. They moved to the Miami 5 with 17 left but the drive ended when Trace Armstrong sacked Flutie, forcing the Bills 4th lost fumble of the day and Miami recovered at the 3.

AFC WILD CARD GAME

Titans 22, Bills 16

January 8, 2000 – Adelphia Coliseum – (66,782)

The 11-5 Bills traveled to Nashville for an AFC Wild Card match-up with the 13-3 Titans that fittingly had all the elements of a country western ballad – adversity, exhilaration, frustrating run-ins with lawmen, and in the end, heartbreak. Steve Christie's 41-yd. FG with :16 left appeared to give Buffalo the upset victory but on the ensuing kickoff, Frank Wycheck fired a suspicious looking cross-field lateral to Kevin Dyson that he returned 75 yards for the game-winning TD. The legality of the TD was confirmed following a video replay review by referee Phil Luckett. The improbable and bizarre ending ensured the game's place as one of the most memorable in NFL history.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Titans got on the board first when DE Jevon Kearse forced a Rob Johnson fumble out of the back of the end zone, resulting in a safety. Following the free kick, the Titans capped a 5-play, 28-yd. drive with a 1-yard Steve McNair TD run. Momentum appeared to shift Buffalo's way later in the quarter when Phil Hansen forced an Eddie George fumble and Kurt Schulz recovered at the Buffalo 42. Three plays later on 3rd-and-10, Johnson connected with Peerless Price on a 27-yd. completion to the Titans 31 with 1:53 to play but field judge Al Jury ruled that Price bobbled the ball though TV replays indicated otherwise. Following the Buffalo punt, Tennessee faced a 3rd-and-10 when a McNair run was stopped a yard short of the first down. The Titans were lined up to punt it back to the Bills with :38 left when the replay booth intervened. After a delay of 5:20, Luckett changed the spot of the ball to give the Titans a first down. They then advanced to the Buffalo 27 before Al DelGreco missed a 45-yd. FG as the half expired. However, officials called a rare defensive holding penalty on the Bills and the ensuing 40-yarder on the half's final play gave Tennessee a 12-0 lead at intermission.

Buffalo opened the 2nd half with a 44-yard Antowain Smith run on the first play from scrimmage and three plays later, Smith scored on a 4-yd. run to pull the Bills to within 12-7. That score remained until early in the 4th when Smith capped a 9-play, 65-yd. drive with a 1-yd. TD run and the Bills led 13-12 after an unsuccessful 2-point try. Tennessee then re-claimed the lead with 1:48 to play on DelGreco's 26-yd. FG. Down 15-13, the Bills took over at their own 39 with 1:41 to play, no timeouts, and playing with a patch-work offensive line due to injuries. Johnson then led the team on a game-winning march to the Tennessee 23, thanks to a 14-yd. pass to Price, a 12-yd. run by Jonathan Linton and a 9-yard pass to Price. On the play before the final completion to Price, Johnson lost his shoe and was unable to replace it because the clock was ticking down but still executed the crucial play shoeless. Had Christie's field goal held up as the game-winner, the Johnson-led drive would go down as one of the most impressive in Bills lore. It was soon overshadowed, however, by the Titan return.

HISTORY

REGULAR SEASON COMEBACKS FROM DEFICITS GREATER THAN 20

REGULAR SEASON COMEBACKS FROM DEFICITS GREATER THAN 20

September 21, 1997, Rich Stadium

BUFFALO 37, Indianapolis 35

The Bills mounted the second-largest comeback in NFL regular season history when they overturned a 26-0 deficit. Rookie RB Antowain Smith capped off Buffalo's scoring frenzy when he crashed through the line and scampered 54 yards. He had scored the go-ahead TD (30-29) on a one-yard plunge on the previous series.

October 25, 1987, Joe Robbie Stadium

BUFFALO 34, Miami 31

The Bills fell behind 21-0 but battled back in the second half to set the stage for kicker Scott Norwood's 27-yard field goal in overtime.

THE HOUSTON COMEBACK IN THE PLAYOFFS

(also on page 246)

January 3, 1993, Rich Stadium

BUFFALO 41, Houston 38 (OT)

QB Frank Reich started for an injured Jim Kelly and brought Buffalo back from a 32-point 3rd quarter deficit in the AFC Wild Card Playoff to record the greatest comeback in NFL history. Four of the Bills' 5 TDs came on Reich passes (3 to WR Andre Reed) and K Stevie Christie kicked the 32-yard winning FG in OT.

- 1989 – 1/1 In first home playoff game at Rich Stadium, Bills defeated Houston, 17-10, in AFC Divisional matchup. 1/8 Cincinnati holds off Buffalo, 21-10, in the AFC Championship game at Riverfront Stadium. 12/23 Bills clinch second consecutive AFC Eastern Division crown by defeating the New York Jets, 37-0, in the season finale.
- 1990 – 1/6 Buffalo narrowly missed playoff advancement in AFC Divisional loss at Cleveland, 34-30. 12/23 Bills claimed their third consecutive AFC Eastern Division title by handing Miami a 24-14 defeat in front of a Rich Stadium record crowd of 80,235.
- 1991 – 1/12 Bills defeat Miami, 44-34, in the AFC Divisional Playoff game as the 2 teams combined for a regulation time NFL playoff record for points scored. 1/20 Bills won their first-ever AFC Championship by dominating the LA Raiders, 51-3. 1/27 Bills lost to the NY Giants, 20-19, in Super Bowl XXV as a Scott Norwood FG sailed wide right with 8 seconds remaining in "A Game for the Ages." 9/1 Bills set 10 new team offensive records with opening day win over Dolphins and RB Thurman Thomas becomes the first Bills back to record 100 yards rushing and receiving in a single game on his way to becoming the NFL's MVP. 12/1 Buffalo captures its 4th consecutive AFC East crown with a 24-13 victory over the Jets. 12/22 Bills fans establish a new single season in-stadium NFL record of 635,889, breaking their own mark they set in 1988.
- 1992 – 1/12 Buffalo holds back Denver, 10-7, to capture its 2nd consecutive AFC title. 1/26 Bills' quest for a world championship is dashed as the Redskins win, 37-24, in Super Bowl XXVI. 9/6 WR James Lofton breaks Steve Largent's NFL receiving yards record of 13,089 vs. the Rams. 9/13 Bills defeat the 49ers, 34-31, in the 1st NFL game without a punt. 10/4 Largest home crowd (80,368) sees the Bills fall to Miami, 10-37.
- 1993 – 1/3 QB Frank Reich leads the Bills back from a 32-point deficit in the NFL's greatest comeback, a 41-38 OT win over Houston in the Wild Card game. 1/17 Buffalo's defense smothers Miami in the AFC title game, 29-10. 1/31 Bills become only the 2nd team in NFL history to appear in 3 consecutive Super Bowls, but lose to Dallas, 52-17, in the Rose Bowl. 2/4 Bill Polian's 7-year tenure as GM ends with his release. 2/5 Bills Director of Player Personnel John Butler is named Executive V.P./GM. 12/26 Bills claim 5th AFC East crown in past 6 years.
- 1994 – 1/23 Bills win 4th consecutive AFC title with 30-13 victory over Joe Montana and the Chiefs to become 1st team to play in 4th consecutive Super Bowl. 1/30 Buffalo bows to Dallas again, 13-30, in Super Bowl XXVIII. 2/1 Construction begins at the stadium to add 14 luxury suites, glassed-in club seating and the largest SONY JumboTron scoreboard in the United States.
- 1995 – 3/13 Construction begins on the Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. Field House. 10/8 The completed Field House opens with the unveiling of the Buffalo Bills Experience, the first fan interactive area displayed by any single team in the NFL. 12/17 Bills defeat Miami, 23-20, to win their sixth AFC East title in the past eight seasons. 12/30 Bills defeat Dolphins, 37-22, at home in Divisional playoff game in repeat of scenario from the 1990 season.
- 1996 – 12/22 Bills defeat Kansas City, 20-9, to advance to the postseason for the eighth time in the past nine seasons. 12/30 Center Kent Hull retires after 11 seasons in Buffalo.
- 1997 – 1/31 Quarterback Jim Kelly announces his retirement after 11 seasons with the Bills. 7/31 Bills, the state of New York and Erie County agree on a new stadium lease proposal to keep the Bills in Buffalo for an additional six years, provided that $11 million in generated revenue from the sale of 76 new suites and 6,878 new club seats is sold by December 1998. 2/31 Marv Levy, winningest head coach in Bills history, announces his retirement.
- 1998 – 1/5 Defensive Coordinator Wade Phillips is named the 11th head coach in Bills history. 1/20 Bills sign QB Doug Flutie, former Heisman Trophy winner and CFL Most Outstanding Player six seasons. 2/13 Bills acquire QB Rob Johnson from Jacksonville for the 1st and 4th round selections in the 1998 Draft. 12/1 Team announces that it has met its $11 million sales goal for suite and seat sales. 12/18 Bills and state officially sign the stadium lease agreement that will keep the Bills in Western New York for 15 the next years and also announce the venue in Orchard Park has been re-named Ralph Wilson Stadium.
- 1999 – 1/2 Buffalo loses a heartbreaker at Miami in an AFC Wild Card tilt as Doug Flutie is sacked deep in Dolphins territory in the game's final minute, preserving the 24-17 Miami win. 9/19 Bills play first regular season game at renovated Ralph Wilson Stadium and mark the event by defeating the Jets, 17-3. 11/28 Bills defeat New England to record their 100th win in the 1990s, making them just the 6th NFL franchise ever to do so. The win was part of a successful regular season that saw Buffalo go 11-5 and finish second in the AFC East. Buffalo finished the decade with an AFC best record of 103-57...the Bills defense sets several team records and finishes as the #1 unit in the NFL despite not having any Pro Bowlers...after an impressive performance in the season finale vs. Indy, Rob Johnson got the starting nod at QB over Doug Flutie in the AFC Wild Card game at Tennessee. The bold move nearly paid off as Johnson led the Bills to the game-winning field goal in the game's final half-minute but the lead was erased when the Titans turned in a memorable and controversial trick play on the ensuing kickoff return to doom the Bills.
- 2000 – The Bills say goodbye to three of the greatest players in team history during the offseason when they release Andre Reed, Bruce Smith and Thurman Thomas in salary-cap related moves...when the season rolls around, they get a chance to avenge their 1999 season-ending playoff loss to the Titans when they open the 2000 season with a home Sunday night game against Tennessee; Buffalo wins that game and beats Green Bay the next week before a three-game slide drops the Bills to 2-3...the Bills win four straight games and improve to 7-4 in late November but at Tampa they lose not only the game but also three key defensive starters...the Bills go on to lose four of the last five games to finish 8-8 and in fourth place in the AFC East...four Bills earn Pro Bowl selections – G Ruben Brown, LB Sam Cowart, WR Eric Moulds and NT Ted Washington...the week before the season finale, GM John Butler is relieved of his duties and head coach Wade Phillips is let go following the season.

2001 – 1/10 Tom Donahoe is hired as President and General Manager...1/27 Marv Levy is selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame...2/1 Gregg Williams is hired as the 12th head coach in franchise history...2/27 Thurman Thomas announces his retirement...Bills completely revamp roster due in part to salary cap constraints and open season with 22 new players...Pro Bowl LB Sam Cowart is lost for the season with an achilles injury suffered in first quarter of opener; QB Rob Johnson separates shoulder in game #8 and Alex Van Pelt takes over at QB the rest of the season...young squad struggles to 3-13 season...guard Ruben Brown is selected to his sixth straight Pro Bowl and fullback Larry Centers is picked for his third (first with Bills)...WR Andre Reed returns to announce his retirement on 9/8 and DE Phil Hansen also retires the day after the season finale.

2002 – Months before the 2002 regular season began, the Bills made many significant moves that would alter the course of the franchise. Two took place on draft weekend, first on 4/20 when the team selected Texas OT Mike Williams with the 4th overall pick, Buffalo's highest since taking Bruce Smith #1 overall in 1985. The next day's move (4/21) was even bigger as Buffalo acquired all-pro QB Drew Bledsoe from the Patriots in exchange for the Bills first-rounder in 2003. The team's makeover took a more aesthetic turn on 6/8 when the Bills unveiled new uniforms that marked the first significant modification since 1986 and saw the addition of dark blue and nickel to the team's enhanced red, white & blue scheme. When the season arrived, the Bills quickly proved to be one of the NFL's most electrifying and exciting teams of 2002 by going into overtime in three of the first four games. Buffalo's high-powered offense would go on to set numerous team records while several individuals did also. Bledsoe set 10 franchise marks including single-season records for passing yards, attempts, and completions while WR Eric Moulds became the first Bill to catch 100 passes in a campaign. RB Travis Henry rushed for the 4th-highest single-season total in team history (1,438) and ran for 13 TDs while LB London Fletcher set the franchise record for tackles in a season with 209. By finishing with five more wins than the year before Buffalo matched the best single-season turnaround in team history and was in the playoff hunt until game 15. Their 8-8 mark was just one game behind the division champion Jets who won the AFC East by virtue of tie-breakers over the Dolphins and Patriots (all 9-7).

2003 – The Bills were active in the 2003 offseason, signing linebackers Jeff Posey and Takeo Spikes, and also shocking much of the NFL by drafting RB Willis McGahee from Miami with the 23rd pick in the draft that the Bills received from Atlanta in exchange for the Falcons signing of Peenless Price. Days before the beginning of the season, the Bills signed free agent safety Lawyer Milloy (9/4), who had been released by the Patriots six days before the first game. The Bills came out of the gates fast, defeating New England in the opening game 31-0 and handling Jacksonville in week two 38-17. After an offensive explosion the first two weeks, the Bills attack quelled and the team lost two out of the next three. An Eric Moulds groin injury in week five vs. Cincinnati would prove costly to the team's offense for the remainder of the season. After finishing the first half of the season with a 4-4 record, the team dropped its next three games despite impressive defensive efforts. The team dropped three of its last five games, including a heart-breaking two point defeat at Tennessee, and finished the year 6-10. The bright spot of the year was the team's defense which finished second in the NFL with Takeo Spikes reaping the rewards by earning his first ever selection to the Pro Bowl. Defensive end Aaron Schobel also had a career-year with 11.5 sacks and became only the fifth player in team history to record a ten-sack season. Guard Ruben Brown also earned a Pro Bowl selection. Following the season, head coach Gregg Williams' contract was not renewed.

2004 – After finishing the 2003 season with a 6-10 record, the Bills hired Mike Mularkey (1/14) as the 13th head coach in franchise history. The Bills continued to make significant offseason acquisitions to improve the franchise, including signing veteran guard Chris Villarrial (3/3) and veteran cornerback Troy Vincent (3/16). Using the NFL Draft as a tool for future success, the Bills selected speedy wide receiver Lee Evans with the 13th overall pick and quarterback J.P. Losman just nine spots later with the 22nd pick. The Bills started 2004 with a disappointing 0-4 record, but went on the win nine out of their last 12 games, including six in a row, to finish at an improved 9-7. The team lost three of the first four games by a combined eight points, but evolved into a team that reveled in finishing games. All three aspects of the team contributed to the team's success, with the defense finishing second in the League for the second straight year, while the special teams ranked in the top five in most major categories and the offense provided enough explosiveness to put points on the board. Willis McGahee entered the starting lineup in week six vs. Miami and led the Bills to a 9-2 record in his 11 starts, while rushing for 100+ yards seven times and scoring 13 touchdowns, second in franchise history to O.J. Simpson's 16 in 1975. First-year wide out Evans proved to be a perfect compliment to Eric Moulds, as Evans led all rookies with nine receiving touchdowns. Led by the offensive's explosiveness, the Bills scored 395 points in 2004, a 152-point improvement from 2003. The Bills defense boasted two Pro Bowlers, Takeo Spikes and Sam Adams, while the rest of the team played at a Pro Bowl level. The defense led the League in takeaways with 39 and led the AFC in sacks with 45. Terrence McGee earned a nod to the Pro Bowl in his first year as a kick returner by leading the AFC with a 26.3 KOR average and leading the NFL with three KOR touchdowns. McGee set a new Bills single-season mark with his three KOR touchdowns and tied the team's career mark. Nate Clements and Jonathan Smith both returned punts for touchdowns, giving the Bills five punt/kickoff return touchdowns on the year, a feat that had not been accomplished since 1959 (Chicago Cardinals).

2005 – After releasing veteran QB Drew Bledsoe (2/22) and naming second-year QB J.P. Losman the starter, the Bills signed free agent QB Kelly Holcomb (3/7) to be Losman's back-up. The Bills filled holes on the offensive line with the signings of tackle Mike Gandy (3/4) and guard Bernie Anderson (3/31). The Bills started the 2005 season with an opening-day victory over the Houston Texans, but struggled to a 5-11 record and lost six of their final seven games. Sparking a 37-27 victory over Cincinnati (12/24), CB/KR Terrence McGee became the first player in NFL history to return a kickoff for a touchdown and an interception for a touchdown in the same game. RB Willis McGahee finished with a career-high 1,247 yards rushing, WR Lee Evans posted 743 yards, 48 receptions and seven touchdowns, while WR Eric Moulds tallied 81 receptions for 816 yards. LB London Fletcher led the team with 174 tackles and DE Aaron Schobel tallied 12 sacks. The Bills special teams' unit finished No. 1 in the NFL and punter Brian Moorman went to his first-ever Pro Bowl, along with long snapper Mike Schneck. Moorman finished the year with the highest gross punting average in the AFC (45.7) and the second highest net average in the AFC (39.3).

BILLS SUMMER HOME

BUFFALO BILLS BAUSCH & LOMB TRAINING CAMP

The Bills moved their training camp in 2000 to St. John Fisher College near Rochester, NY. St. John Fisher College quickly earned a national reputation for hosting one of the top training camps in the NFL. The Bills camp regularly attracts fans from across New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Canada. Fans from further destinations have made the Bills Training Camp a stop on their vacation agendas as well.

The team holds daily practices at St. John Fisher College and utilizes the school's state-of-the-art training facility and locker rooms. Fans may visit training camp on any day of the week to watch practice from the enhanced sideline vantage points and admission is free. As in years past, children and adults can enjoy interactive games, purchase game tickets as well as exclusive 2006 Bills gear in the vendor tent at the camp entrance. For the third consecutive year, the Bills will hold two evening practices that will be another of the free events for fans to attend. The practices will include a full team autograph session following the training session as well as an opportunity for fans to test their football skills in the Bills Experience.

THE BUFFALO BILLS FIELD HOUSE

■ The Buffalo Bills Fieldhouse redefines the state-of-the-art for indoor practice facilities. This is the only facility in the NFL that can accommodate full indoor special teams practice. Construction of the facility began in March of 1995 and was completed in September of the same year. The 95,000 square-foot construction is 12 stories high and is large enough to duplicate the stadium field, including a new field turf surface. The building features a 20-foot wide rubberized track which runs around the field and is 1/5 of a mile in distance. It also houses a Bills' Photo Gallery that is composed of four-foot by six-foot photos of former players who were selected for the Bills Silver Anniversary Team, Pro Bowl, or the Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. Distinguished Service Award.

HOME FIELD HISTORY

- When the Buffalo Bills began play in 1960, their home venue was War Memorial Stadium. Built in 1936, the "Rockpile" was a 36,500-seat facility located in Buffalo at Jefferson and Best streets. In 1965, the open air, natural grass facility was expanded by adding an upper deck to increase capacity to 46,206.
- Years of extreme weather and the popularity of the Bills led to the creation of a larger facility. A 113-acre tract of land approximately 30 minutes from downtown Buffalo was selected and groundbreaking ceremonies were conducted in Orchard Park on April 4, 1972 for the new football complex. To form the lower level of the stadium, more than 370,000 feet of shale were removed – putting the field 50 feet below ground level. Construction was completed in slightly over 14 months and on August 17, 1973, the stadium was officially opened as the Bills played host to the Washington Redskins.
- Since the stadium's original construction, the facility has seen many changes. In 1984, the stadium's capacity was increased to 80,290 with the addition of 16 executive suites on the top floor of the administration building. Eight years later, 24 more suites were constructed in the west end zone and shared restrooms were added to the original suites. The Red Zone and Goal Line indoor clubs were added in 1994, offering fans a comfortable atmosphere as each of the two blocks of 500 seats are enclosed in glass. Also in 1994, 14 new suites were added, bringing the grand total to 88 luxury boxes. The 1994 expansion project also brought the team the largest JumboTron in the United States. This mammoth videoboard measures 31.5 feet high by 41.5 feet wide. Some of the capabilities of the videoboard include full-color instant replays, live action shots, crowd shots, out-of-town highlights, animations and various in-stadium shots from cameras exclusive to videoboard usage. In addition, a black and white Daktronics Scoreboard matrix system designed to complement the Sony JumboTron was installed.
- In 1999 crews completed a seven-month stadium overhaul that included constructing 76 brand-new dugout suites and two new enclosed club sections each containing 500 seats. Fans in the dugout suites watch the action just 40 rows from the field. In addition, the Bills replaced 6,800 seats in the sideline club sections with revolutionary contoured heated seats, the first of their kind in North America. Renovations also included four new restroom towers, upgraded stadium lighting and a state-of-the-art sound system.
